Libertarian Party of Bexar County

Temporary ByLaws Proposal - Online Meeting Participation

The following new language is proposed to be added to the bylaws at a temporary amendment. The bylaws will be renumbered as appropriate.

Article VI. Meetings

4. The CEC, by majority vote, may allow a fully or partially online meeting so that participants are able to participate remotely. Notices of such meetings shall follow normal notice rules and information on how to participate shall be given in such notices.

Article V. Conventions

2. The CEC, by majority vote, may allow fully or partially online conventions so that participants are able to participate remotely. Notices of such conventions shall follow normal notice rules and information on how to participate shall be given in such notices.

A. Online participation should make best effort to ensure that:
   i. Each participant has the right to interrupt from the floor.
   ii. Each participant has a mechanism to be recognized to speak.
   iii. Each participant can have their vote on floor and ballots properly recorded.
   iv. The capability of in person, should it exist, and remote participants to communicate with one another is clearly established.
