

What makes curiosity so powerful?

Ryan

A strong physique is massively important in men as it gives them the confidence to win in life.

I'm sure most men agree with that as well

The catch is that most people aren't driven enough to make the next move and find the solution they are searching for

For example, in your video you talk about how it's just 20$ for the program and that sort of defeats the curiosity they needed to build to take the next step

I attached a sample copy you can use for your program downbelow for you to see if it matches your voice.

Other fitness programs have done this 3 funnel tweaks that have massively increased their conversion rates.

If you want to find out what they are simply email me back

Sincerely,

Israel Martinez
