Management Resume!

Last updated 1/24/2022

SUMMARY

I am a 15 year old specializing in Content And General Management. What I Can Provide For The Team ~Coming up with ideas to ensure the productiveness and effectiveness of a management team. I am very reliable when it comes to tasks. I am very active on twitter. Scouting on a daily basis (This includes looking for all positions,(streamers, comp players with earnings, content creators with good view etc.). I'm always active on twitter, I enjoy helping manage chats, including making sure there are no arguments,make sure everyone is doing their jobs correctly, everyone's active in group chats, and keep a positive vibe. Experienced positions are Overall Leader, and General Manager, however I can also work as a Head of Management or Talent Development . Occasionally I will be able to help out the team's needs, including designs, teamtates, and anything else needed. I'm always active so I can help with anything needed. My highest potential is pushing out content and recruiting the best people possible that are up to standards. As i've previously stated, i enjoy helping teams grow as much as possible, and getting the team all set up and ready to run on and on. I can enforce team rules and follow through with consequences if needed.

EXPERIENCE

@OfficialAegisGG, 1.2k

I joined Aegis as Head of Management, and got promoted to Overall Leader later on. In Aegis I focused on a variety of different things in order to grow and sustain happiness within the team and the community. I made sure everyone within management was taking care of their task they were given weekly. I helped Aegis get started with content creation by making a google docs full of content ideas. I scouted daily for Content Creators, Streamers, Management whatever the team needed to have a complete/set roster

@SenaryGaming, 14k

I joined Senary as a Team Manager, for Senary as they didn't last very long I supplied the team with basic needs including: Content Creation ideas, and made sure all chats were very active. I also scouted daily for people who would benefit the team in various ways to join the team.

@EvokeDistrict, 3k

I joined Evoke as General Manager, then later on got promoted to Head of Management, and then promoted to Overall Leader my time in Evoke I completed everyday tasks such as keeping roster full with high standards Players, Content Creators, Creative Players Management etc. I made a task sheet for all management to complete and updated it weekly so everyone has a new task to complete. Managed the team's discord kept it as active as I can. I brought new faces to the management teams such as a more Managers, Lead Talent Scouts etc..., I mainly focused on providing ideas to keep engaged with grinders, and the community and I answer direct messages to keep everyone engaged.

@AstraSect, 8k (Not Finish)

I joined Astra as a general manager, then later got promoted to Operations Manager, then promoted again to overall lead. My time in Astra made sure operations went very smoothly. Ran community page for astra made sure everyone was up to date with the Team, Team Socials etc. Gave lots of content ideas for the team so we can keep a consistent upload schedule (once a week). Then left and rejoined as OM, I run Artistry page, and Community page scheduling tweets for both accounts every 3-5 to make sure it maintains active.
