

Student-Led Conferences March 2024

7th Grade Advanced LA Reflections & Artifacts

Student answers should show understanding of your growth this semester, strengths and stretches, and what students will be mindful of in the future. (Student Rubric) Students, please make sure your answers are in plain text

[Insert image of yourself as a student during Q3 here.]

When I think an assignment is easy but it's not or just in general my childhood is over. GENERAL

What is your LA grade now?

Answer here

Write strength or stretch in each category.

Reading	Writing	Language	Research	Oral Exp
strength	strength	strength	stretch	stretch

Effort Rating

Please rate yourself according to the effort you typically put forth in LA. Highlight the one that best fits you during the third quarter. Feel free to add decimals and/or notes as needed.

4	3	2	1
Consistent striving for personal best in language arts.	Reasonably consistent effort but not to a "personal best" level	Inconsistent effort (may be enough to maintain the grade you want)	Little effort

What is one thing you'd like to continue OR do differently (last chance)?

spend more time and effort on things that need more time/effort

Thought/"Motto" for rest of year -

just try a little harder

WRITING

In what ways did the argument essay outline and/or March blog outline assignments impact you as a writer? What specifically did you gain from these assignments?

I learned how to use a new format that will help me in the future

Reflect on/describe a struggle you faced as a writer this quarter. What did you learn from the struggle?

i struggled with quotations and i learned that a source only need to be less than five lines

In what ways do you feel you “hit the target” and/or “are still working” on the complex skills required in one or both of these assignments?

I think it hit the target on the claim and number 2s and i need to work on almost everything else

READING

What learning stood out to you about the process we used for research? Consider your understanding of site authority, credibility, coverage, and scope, along with GALE and the source evaluation process.

i found the process to evaluate sites challenging but it brought good results when done properly

Reflect on the quantity of time you've spent on independent reading.

i should probably read more at home

Comment on ways in which you've successfully challenged and/or grown yourself as a reader this quarter. Consider volume, stamina, difficulty of text, etc.

i have been reading more challenging books that are longer

LANGUAGE

How do your WWW scores in IC reflect both your time studying AND your knowledge of Greek & Latin roots and stems? Remember, we are over 250+ now!

I need to study more both old and new words

Reflect on your understanding of the Poetry WoD terms.

they are all familiar

Please set permissions to view and link on your Language Arts page when complete.