	Tech Tidbits	Our goal was to complete a video that showcases how to shut off your computer so that students will follow it and shut it off weekly. This is very important	George - recorded and voiced over video	We made a video showing two different ways to shut off your computer completely, and are currently working on editing the video, with a voice over. Next time we come back, we will create a video on how to properly hold a chromebook as 1
