

Saturday 5th - Sunday 6th - Monday 7th of April 2070

Scan This! (What happened?):

The party at the mount was ended early, SK was probably on their way.

The runners avoided a burnt, charred abandoned mall. It gave Merlin the creeps and he murmured vaguely of powers that lurk in the ruins.

The runners saw a lot of traffic in the sky, drones, helicopters, over the ruins.

A drone took a peek at the Truck. Snickers re-wrote its records.

The drone was pretty interested in the Truck's number plate.

Security going in to the Domes was kind of tight.

Snickers induced a car crash and Wesley attached a fake number plate to the truck.

The runners got into the K-dome and had some fun at "Lovers".

Zola acted vaguely professionally while everyone else got overexcited at reception.

Zola got a job; Get the De-Sal research from Apex Bio Solutions on Mount Garden.

Apparently it's much harder to get onto Mount Island than Mr. Johnson let on, plus Apex = Evo.

Snickers jumped onto the Knight Errant Mount Garden Node and started snooping.

Laz called "someone that he used to know", drama sort of ensued...

Laz got some info on a one Brian Thompson from his contact.

Brian Thompson used to work the checkpoints, but turns out he's quit to become a Martial Artist.

Jack whooped Brian Thompson's ass, and Brian gave Jack the name of his ex-line manager "Darron Kronksy".

One thing lead to the next and Laz is getting fighting lessons from Brian Thompson.

More things lead to other things and Jack has a job interview and the correct security clearance to get him onto Mount Garden!

Snickers pushed his luck, and got traced by the most obvious ICON for a trace IC ever.

Real Wiz! (Good Stuff):

The runners made it into the K-dome without too much heat.

Got the low-down on ex Knight Errant agent "Brian Thompson".

Got the details of Knight Errant line manager "Darron Kronksy"

Sneakers got a photo of the current Mr. Johnson.

Silk and Merlin spent the night together.

Silk got Merlin to open up about his latent magical powers, maybe he's released a dragon?

~~!!!!!!~~ Laz has bottomless pits of NuYen!~~!!!!!!~~

Frag this Drek! (Bad stuff):

Snickers got traced by Knight Errant Matrix security, rendering his PAN and Commlink HOT HOT HOT!

Nitron is missing.

Laz's truck is on the news.

Geva burnt herself re-arranging her back seat chemicals.

Only got 5 days to to get the De-Sal research from Apex Bio Solutions!

New Chummers (New Contacts):

Possibly Brian Thompson for Unarmed Combat lessons.

Hoi Mr. Johnson! (New Jobs):

Met with Mr. Johnson, currently on a Run to secure De-Sal research from Apex Bio Solutions.

The pay is 5k a head, with a bonus if things are made to look "like an accident".

Sweet, Sweet Karma:

5 Karma for all ya'll Chummers.
