

Unit 5 Short Test

Grammar

1 Complete the first conditional sentences with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- If I _____ (become) a waiter in that new restaurant, I _____ (be) on my feet all day.
- It's your first day at work, so Janina _____ (help) you if you _____ (not know) what to do.
- If you _____ (not like) working outdoors, you _____ (not enjoy) this job.
- Ben _____ (get) a pay rise if he _____ (work) longer hours.
- If Sue _____ (not come) into the office today, _____ (we / have) the meeting without her?

2 There is one mistake (1–2 words) in each sentence. Circle the mistake and correct.

- What Jack will do if he doesn't pass his exams? _____
- If Helen will become a pilot, she will travel a lot. _____
- Your boss will be surprised if you won't do well in the interview. _____
- If Mandy studies hard at university, she will gets a good degree. _____
- Jan won't call the hotel receptionist if she didn't need anything. _____

3 Complete the first conditional sentences with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

- If I _____ (start) my new job next week, I _____ (have) some money at the end of the month.
- If you _____ (not enjoy) repetitive work, you _____ (not like) this job.
- Sharon _____ (get) an interview if she _____ (send) her CV to the company today.
- If the people in the office _____ (not eat) all the birthday cake, _____ (you / save) some for me?
- The company _____ (email) John if they _____ (need) more sales assistants.

4 There is one mistake (1–2 words) in each sentence. Circle the mistake and correct it.

- What you will do if you don't get a pay rise? _____
- If I will get a good job, I will earn a lot of money. _____
- Ben's mum will be upset if he won't go to university. _____
- If Sally feels better in the morning, she comes in to work. _____
- Rob won't become a sports coach if he won't be fit enough. _____

