

File Name: HTLWP.Michael.Kampala.JohnKitui.b1952.ClipA
GRIT Journalist: Michael Makongo
Date of Interview: March 24 2023
9Project: How To Live Without Plastic
Interviewee Name: John Kitui
Interview Language: English

General Image Comments:

Landscape aspect. Handheld, but reasonably stead. Indoors. Very dark.

General Audio Comments:

Occasional b/g noise of children talking, but audible.

TRANSCRIPT/TRANSLATION

00.00 My name is John James (?) Kitui. I was born in 1952. 00.10 I grew up in a village, in the country. In those days, we never used to have plastic bags 00.26 we could have baskets made out of small... some small small, bit of...plants. Call it plants, but they would be like the spokes of a bicycle, about the size of spokes of a motorcycle. 00.53 So I was...things like sugar, we put in paper bags. [child comes into frame briefly] 01.04 Paper bags were made out of...khaki paper bags, which look like a just like a [?? indistinct/unfamiliar word]. 01.25 so they would be white and narrower, and alternating sides. 01.29 [loud bang in background]