Charter Meeting for Reagan Bottomley Will You Go Out With Me Club: (1 ½ minute)

INT. SJCA' CONVERSATION ROOM - DAY

The St. John's College delegate council are talking amongst themselves in the Conversation Room, seated at their usual seats around the main conference table. At the end of the table sits PRESIDENT with a paper copy of the charter for Reagan Bottomley Will You Go Out With Me Club in front of them. REAGAN uses her gavel to call the meeting to order.

REAGAN

Now we will hear the charter for... Reagan Bottomley Will You Go Out With Me club. So, first charter question for the club president— what?

PRESIDENT

Yes, so the goal of starting this club was to get the attention of Reagan Bottomley, standing Delegate Council President. Certain polity members were concerned that DC President Reagan Bottomley would have no time in her schedule to be asked out, and so by starting this club we aim to get her attention through a charter and budget hearing.

REAGAN

... ok, other questions?

DELEGATE COUNCIL MEMBER #1

So I'm wondering about the feasibility of this club. Specifically I'm wondering, why would this club need money? I think you guys can do this without financial support from the college. Did you want us to, what, pay for your dinner? For therapy after she says no?

STUDENT ATTORNEY

DC representatives are reminded to save budget questions for the budget meeting.

DC MEMBER #1

My bad.

STUDENT ATTORNEY

Honestly, I think this is a noble club with a noble purpose, but I'm wondering about the longevity of the club. How do you plan to continue as a club after initially asking out DC President Reagan Bottomley?

PRESIDENT

Well, this club is so that anyone can be enabled to ask out standing DC President Reagan Bottomley. We will facilitate weekly meetings to plan out proposals, network with the DC to enable the acquiring of her phone number, and should DC President Reagan Bottomley become no longer single the club will host support groups for our members and the larger polity.

DC MEMBER #2

Alright, I think we've heard enough. Motion to approve the charter for Reagan Bottomley Club.

DC MEMBER #1

Silent vote!

REAGAN

Curtain!
