

Lab Lesson - Speak English Fluently

Before watching

1. Learning a foreign language - Put the following items in order according to the relevance they have in your opinion.

SPEAKING      WRITING      GRAMMAR      VOCABULARY      LISTENING      READING

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Watch the video and answer the following questions

1. What's A. J. Hoge's job in your opinion?
2. What's his "rule number three"?
3. What is he giving advice/suggestions about?
4. Why do non-native speakers, who study English at school, have troubles especially with their speaking?
5. What do they learn at school, then?
6. Do native speakers (American, British, Canadian) know much about grammar? Why? Why not?
7. How do they learn the language, then?
8. A.J. Hoge suggests to start listening easy materials at first. What does he mean by easy?
9. Does A. J. Hoge think it is possible to use something difficult to listen to? How?
10. When and how much should you listen to English materials according to A. J.?
11. What do you think is the real aim of this video ?
12. Do you think A.J. 's suggestions are good?
13. How often do you listen to English audio/video materials? Do you think it helps you to improve your English?