GENERAL SPONSORSHIP PACKET - MISSION

Tagline: Empowering Tomorrow's Latino Leaders Today

At the National Hispanic Institute, we believe that leadership is not about authority—it's about responsibility. For over four decades, our mission has been to cultivate the leadership capacities of Latino youth so they can become changemakers within their communities and beyond.

Our members learn to think critically, speak powerfully, and act with intention. They are builders of opportunity, stewards of culture, and drivers of innovation.

We're not just preparing students for college—we're preparing them to shape the world.

Why Sponsor This Work (General)

When you partner with NHI, you're not simply sponsoring a program—you're investing in the future of Latino leadership. With over 100,000 alumni, a 98% college matriculation rate, and a reach that spans the U.S. and Latin America, NHI delivers measurable outcomes with generational impact.

Your support helps develop young people who return to their communities ready to lead with vision, heart, and purpose. Together, we can build a future led by leaders who reflect the communities they serve.

NONPROFIT SECTOR PACKET - MISSION

Tagline: Where Mission Meets Momentum: Investing in Latino Youth

At the National Hispanic Institute, we believe leadership isn't something given—it's something grown from within our communities. Our mission is to enhance the leadership development capacities of Latino communities by cultivating young people who are deeply invested in their community's future.

We don't just prepare students to lead—we prepare communities to prosper through their own talent, ideas, and dreams. In that way, our work aligns with the heart of the nonprofit sector: a shared belief in possibility, in community-rooted vision, and in the power of people to shape a better tomorrow.

Together, we're not just building leaders—we're building futures from the inside out.

Why Sponsor This Work (Nonprofit Framing)

Your partnership helps extend a movement rooted in empowerment, not intervention. Sponsoring NHI means investing in a model that develops homegrown leaders who will sustain, uplift, and reimagine their communities for generations.

With a proven track record, deep cultural relevance, and an alumni network that spans public service, education, and entrepreneurship, NHI offers nonprofit partners a direct line to transformational impact—led by the very people it serves.

FINANCE SECTOR PACKET - MISSION

Tagline: Future-Proof Leadership: A Smart Investment in Tomorrow

At the National Hispanic Institute, we believe that cultivating talent is the most strategic investment any community—or company—can make. Our mission is to enhance the leadership development capacities of Latino communities by preparing high-performing students to lead with vision, discipline, and purpose.

Our members don't just succeed academically—they return to their communities as drivers of innovation and catalysts for growth. Much like the goals in most financial sectors, investing in our youth's leadership capacities seeks to identify long-term potential, nurture its development, and create the conditions for prosperity across generations.

We're not just preparing leaders for tomorrow—we're developing the architects of a future where talent, innovation, and leadership drive sustainable growth.

Why Sponsor This Work (Finance Framing)

Supporting NHI is a forward-looking investment in the talent pipeline of the future. With a 98% college matriculation rate and alumni in fields ranging from finance and law to public policy and entrepreneurship, NHI produces measurable outcomes.

Sponsors gain more than visibility—they gain alignment with a proven model for scalable, values-driven leadership development. When you invest in NHI, you're not only backing future professionals—you're fueling the next generation of economic growth.

HOSPITALITY SECTOR PACKET - MISSION

Tagline: Serving Community, Cultivating Legacy

At the National Hispanic Institute, we believe that great leadership—like great hospitality—begins with a deep respect for people, culture, and connection. Our mission is to enhance the leadership development capacities of Latino communities by cultivating young people who serve not only with skill, but with heart.

Our members learn to build bridges, foster belonging, and create environments where people feel seen, valued, and inspired. These are the same values that guide the hospitality industry: care, intentionality, and the ability to create meaningful experiences.

We're not just developing future professionals—we're nurturing leaders who understand how to serve with purpose and elevate every community they touch.

Why Sponsor This Work (Hospitality Framing)

Supporting NHI connects your brand to a legacy of leadership rooted in service, community, and culture. Our alumni go on to lead in ways that strengthen families, transform industries, and elevate the voices of everyone in our communities.

It's an investment in future leaders who understand the power of service to bring people together.
