

Read the sentences. What do the words in bold mean?

1. She spends almost a third of her monthly income on clothes for work.
2. We'll get a $1,000 bonus if we finish the project early. That's an incentive to work harder.
3. The best way to contact Mr. Perez is by email. He checks his messages often.
4. Getting a college degree will enable you to get a better job.
5. Tom wants to major in business, but he doesn't know what particular type of business he is most interested in.
6. Even though Laura is unhappy, she's reluctant to quit her current job until she gets a new one.
7. Don't use that pen on the whiteboard. The ink is permanent and you won't be able to erase it.
8. Ann wants a job where she'll be able to utilize her Spanish language skills.
9. As I approach my high school graduation, there is a part of me that isn't ready to finish school.
10. Simon works for a large financial institution in London. The company has offices worldwide.
11. The training program helps people acquire new workplace skills and get better jobs.