

Mariah's Studio - Grants and Fellowships Offered Since Our Inception in 2024

SPRING 2025 – Currently Accepting Applications

Grant Title	Art Used to Support Children or Families Experiencing Trauma
Description	These targeted support grants are aimed at helping individuals or organizations fund art equipment, supplies, or other expenses needed to assist children or families experiencing trauma. Individuals or organizations experienced in using art to support people with trauma are eligible to receive $500-$2500 in funding between January 2025 and February 2026.
Grantees	For more information and to apply, see “Grants, Fellowships, and Programs” menu selection

Grant Title	Art Used to Support Persons Who Have Experienced Domestic Violence
Description	These targeted support grants are aimed at helping individuals trained to support persons who have experienced domestic violence fund art equipment or supplies used to minimize the emotional distress and anxiety that arise from experienced trauma. Employees or volunteers affiliated with a public or private organization that provides support are eligible to receive $500-$2500 in funding between January 2025 and February 2026.
Grantees	For more information and to apply, see “Grants, Fellowships, and Programs” menu selection

Fellowship Title	Fellowship for students enrolled in the University of Maine at Farmington's Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology with an emphasis in Creative Arts program
Description	This fellowship is aimed at helping future Licensed Clinical Professional Counselors (LCPC) fund a creative arts-focused education. Students enrolled either full or part-time in UMF's Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology with an emphasis in Creative Arts program are eligible for up to $5000 in funding for the 2025/2026 school year.
Recipients	For more information and to apply, see “Grants, Fellowships, and Programs” menu selection

FALL 2024/SPRING 2025 – Applications Closed

Grant Title	Art Used to Support US Military Veterans Experiencing Trauma
Description	These targeted support grants are aimed at helping individuals trained to support US Military Veterans fund art equipment or supplies used to minimize the emotional distress and anxiety that arise from experienced trauma. Employees or volunteers affiliated with a public or private organization that provides support to veterans are eligible to receive $500-$2500 in funding between August 2024 and July 2025.
Grantees

FALL 2024 – Awarded, Applications Closed

Grant Title	Art Used to Support Children or Families Experiencing Trauma
Description	These targeted support grants are aimed at helping individuals or organizations fund art equipment, supplies, or other expenses needed to assist children or families experiencing trauma. Individuals or organizations experienced in using art to support people with trauma are eligible to receive $500-$2500 in funding between August 2024 and July 2025.
Grantees	Mariah's Studio provided three support grants to assist funding for art equipment and supplies used to support children or families experiencing trauma. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Gorham Middle School</li><li>● Play Warriors, Inc.</li><li>● University of Maine at Farmington</li></ul>

SPRING 2024 - Awarded, Applications Closed

Grant Title	Grants for Teachers Using Art to Help Students Dealing with Stress
Description	These targeted support grants are aimed at helping educators fund art equipment or supplies used in assisting students dealing with stress. Educators employed by a public or private school are eligible to receive $500-$2500 in funding between January 2024 – July 2024.
Grantees	Mariah's Studio provided two teacher support grants to assist funding for art equipment and supplies used in assisting students dealing with stress. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Gorham Middle School</li><li>● Village Elementary School</li></ul>

Grant Title	Grants for Child Life Specialists Helping Children Dealing with Stress
Description	These targeted support grants are aimed at helping individuals trained to support pediatric patients and/or special needs children and their families fund art equipment or supplies used to minimize the emotional distress and anxiety that may arise from medical procedures, hospitalization, chronic illness, or disabilities. Professional Child Life Care Specialists or Volunteers affiliated with a public or private medical organization are eligible to receive $500-$2500 in funding between February 2024 and January 2025.
Grantees	Mariah's Studio provided three grants to support pediatric patients and their families by funding art equipment and supplies used to minimize the emotional distress and anxiety that arise from medical procedures, hospitalization, chronic illness, and disabilities. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● The John D Bancroft Child Life Program of the Barbara Bush Children's Hospital</li><li>● MaineHealth Bleeding Disorders</li><li>● Play Warriors, Incorporated</li></ul>

Fellowship Title	Fellowship for students enrolled in the University of Maine at Farmington's Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology with an emphasis in Creative Arts program
Description	This fellowship is aimed at helping future Licensed Clinical Professional Counselors (LCPC) fund a creative arts-focused education. Students enrolled either full or part-time in UMF's Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology with an emphasis in Creative Arts program are eligible for up to $5000 in funding for the 2024/2025 school year.
Recipients	Mariah's Studio provided three fellowships to students enrolled in the University of Maine at Farmington's Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology. All three recipients are in the final stages of becoming Licensed Clinical Professional Counselors (LCPs). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ashley "Adie" Jamarillo</li> <li>• Alli Easler</li> <li>• Courtney Harmon</li> </ul> (A link to UMF's press release:  https://www.umf.maine.edu/2024/06/umf-masters-in-counseling-psychology-students-receive-surprise-fellowships-from-mariahs-studio/)