Dear Parents and Students,

Our next class novel is Suzanne Collins' The Hunger Games. We want to give families a heads up about how to get this book. You may buy or borrow, but students will need to be able to write on their copies. We request no library books and no e-books. Use the ISBN-10: 9780439023528 to get the same edition as the class.

- A. Buy from a bookseller. It's cover price is $12.99. Prices may vary based on sales, shipping, etc. They are commonly on sale for $8-11. It's worthwhile to call a local bookstore rather than order it online.

 - Click here to buy new from Barnes and Noble.
 - Click here to buy new from Books-a-Million.
 - Click here to buy used from Second and Charles.
- B. Borrow a used copy: Check with a sibling, friend, etc.
- C. Financial Hardship: Students may simply talk to their English teacher to arrange a free copy.

Students need to have their own, physical copies of this book in class by

Write your name, teacher, and period on the inside cover, and turn in to your English teacher.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Acton
