Agenda Item	Schedule	Action
Welcome and Introductions	6:00pm	Perry Troyer
VSC Report We are currently up to about 40 volunteers, which is better than previous years. This is due to the K parents signing up to be volunteers. We are looking for parents to help with K lunches. Volunteer opportunities are posted on the Morris Bye Volunteer Website.	6:05pm	Meg Goldsberry-Troyer
Title 1 Information: MBE is a Title 1 school Info is sent out monthly in the Paw Prints and during conferences and newsletters. All families should have received the school compact flyer. This will be further discussed during conferences. Progress is monitored through report cards, meetings in teams and report cards. Interpreters are available through Deanna Taylor for Multilingual students. Help your students by reading 20 min daily, log into Wonders and Bridges (on the A-H website lock & key), regular attendance at school. Curriculum - we will switch out Wonders next year. AHS website (academics has more info about this). Title 1 funds: federally funded program to add to equity in education, 87% literacy and math intervention teachers, 2% family engagement, 4% school improvement, 4% district homelessness services, 3% admin costs. (Can find plan on school website as well.) Our MBE plan includes: reading and math achievement (as measured by standardized tests), social emotional learning (Leader in Me program), and Catalyst program for classroom management	6:10 pm	LaDeva Griffin
New things this year: Social Emotional Learning: Filling bucket with nice things about each other (like the children's book) and accountability partners in social emotional learning, continued working with Leader in Me Program		Janel Wahlin

Looking at a Habit Honor Roll in Cafeteria (and on Paw Print) Fire prevention month in October. Firefighters will come out and do a program for the kids (and a dance!)
