Dear Friends and Family,

I hope this letter finds you all in good health and high spirits. I wanted to share some exciting news with you all and seek your support for a meaningful journey I am preparing to embark on. This November/December, I will be participating in a mission trip to Nicaragua with my church, Austin Christian Fellowship, in partnership with our dedicated ministry partner, Nicaragua Resource Network (NRN). I am reaching out to you with a humble request for your assistance.

This mission trip is a unique opportunity for me and our church community to make a positive impact on the lives of individuals and communities in and around Managua, Nicaragua. Locally we partner with NRN, which is an organization that tirelessly working to uplift the people of Nicaragua by providing essential services such as healthcare, education, and community development. Our partnership with NRN allows us to leverage their local expertise and resources, making our efforts even more effective while in country.

To have the greatest impact, I am asking for your support in a variety of ways. Your contributions, both financial and spiritual, will go a long way in helping to further the impact we can provide while on our trip. Any amount of support, no matter how small, will make a significant difference during our time in Nicaragua.

Here are a few ways you can support us on this journey:

1. Prayers and Encouragement: Your prayers and words of encouragement mean a lot to me. Knowing that you are supporting me spiritually is just as important as any financial contribution.
2. Financial Donations: Your financial contributions will be put towards additional onsite project costs in support of the needs within the community.
