

Rewrite the Sentences Using a State Verb

Instructions: Rewrite each sentence using a state verb to make it more precise or natural.

Example:

My brother has a new laptop.

→ My brother owns a new laptop.

→ The laptop belongs to my brother.

If some sentences seem correct to you, write - 'correct' or use another state verb.

1. I really enjoy chocolate.

→ _____

2. She has two cats and a dog.

→ _____

3. This soup is tasting salty.

→ _____

4. I don't like rainy weather.

→ _____

5. He is thinking that the movie is boring.

→ _____

6. I see your point now.

→ _____

7. She is listening to someone calling.

→ _____

8. They are friends of ours.

→ _____

9. She wants to go home now.

→ _____

10. These shoes look expensive.

→ _____

11. I didn't hear what you said.

→ _____

12. I remember that song from my childhood.

→ _____

13. Do you understand the instructions?

→ _____

14. I'm not sure what this word is.

→ _____

15. I need a break.

→ _____