

ENGLISH	MĀORI
World Federation of Music Therapy	World Federation of Music Therapy
Culturally Informed Telehealth	Telehealth i whai mōhio ā-ahurea
Ask the client about their preferences.	Pātai ki te kiritaki he aha ōna hiahia.
Determine if telehealth is appropriate.	Whakatau mehemea e tika ana a Telehealth.
Are there any language or interpreting needs?	He hiahia reo, whakamāori kōrero rānei?
What is the client's access to and perspective on technology?	He aha te āheinga, me te whakaaro o te kiritaki ki te hangarau?
Is there a history of adverse reactions to therapy or technology?	He hītori anō o ngā pāwera kino ki te haumanutanga, te hangarau rānei?
Consider if the benefits outweigh the limitations.	Whakaarohia mēnā he nui ake ngā hua i ngā tepenga.
Choose the most practical and effective delivery method.	Kōwhiria te tikanga whakarato pai rawa, whaihua rawa hoki.
Curated Content	Ihirangi Rauhi
Original Asynchronous Content	Ihirangi Tukutahikore Taketake
Synchronous Virtual Music Therapy	Haumanu Puoro Mariko Tukutahi
Practice with cultural humility and include the client's preferences.	Whakangungu i runga i te wairua whakaiti ā-ahurea, ā, me whakauru i ngā hiahia a te kiritaki.
Avoid Ethnocentrism	Karohia te Whakaariki ā-lwi
Use Cultural Relativism	Whakamahia ngā Tikanga Hāngai ki te Ahurea
Be aware and flexible!	Me aroā, me urutau!
Sense of time and the role of the family, caregiver, and community vary by culture.	He rerekē te titiro ki te wā, me te tūranga o te whānau, te kaitiaki me te hapori, i runga anō i te momo ahurea.

Evaluate the client's social system for safety, privacy, and support.	Arotakea te pūnaha pāpori a te kiritaki mō te haumarutanga, te tūmataititanga me te tautoko.
---	--