To attend the Mukwonago Prom, I understand that…

1) I must turn in a signed contract to purchase a Prom Ticket
2) At Prom check in, I must have a driver's license or student ID, and a valid ticket, and a signed contract on file
3) Mukwonago School District policies and consequences are enforced at Prom like all events
4) If I invite other students who do not have a prom ticket, my parents will be called, and any involved parties will receive a referral to AP. I must ride the bus to and from the event.
5) Prom tickets are non-refundable and non-transferable (no exceptions).
6) Neither I, nor my date, will dance in a way that is inappropriate for a high school event; this includes lewd dancing and behavior that includes grinding, fondling, disrobing, sexual kissing, and any behavior a chaperone deems improper or indecent. Chaperones will ask you to leave the dance floor after one warning; chaperones will contact your parent/guardian and ask them to pick you up from the dance if such behavior continues
7) I must adhere to the MHS Prom Dress code to enter the grand march, dinner, or dance.

Mukwonago High School Prom Dress Code:

Prom is a Formal and School-Sponsored event: dresses, dress suits, or tuxes must be worn.

-Dress Guidelines:
