LAm SOL DO
My father was a fisherman my mama was a fisherman's friend And SOL FA
I was born in the boredom and the chowder So FA DO FA DO
when I reached my prime I left my home in the maritimes
FA DO SOL LAm
headed down the turnpike for New England Sweet NE

solo:
FA-DO-REm-Lam-SOL-LAm
LAm SOL DO
Holes in my confidence holes in the knees of my jeans I's
SOL FA- DO FA-left without a penny in my pocket Oo hoo hoo wee I's a - bout
DO FA DO
destituted as a kid could be And I wish I wore a ring so I could SOL LAm
hock it I'd like to hock it

LAm SOL DO
A young girl in a parking lot was preachin to a crowd singin.
SOL
sacred songs and reading from the bible Well I FA DO FA DO
told her I was lost and she told me all about the Pentecost And I FA DO SOL LAm
seen that girl as the road to my surviv - - - - - - al

solo:
FA-DO-REm-Lam-SOL-LAm
LAm SOL
very same night when I crept to her tent with a flashlight
DO SOL
and my long years of innocence ended
FA DO
Well she took me to the woods sayin'
FA DO FA DO
"Here comes somethin' and it feels so good!" And just like a dog I SOL LAm
was befriended I was befriended

LAm SOL
Oh oh what a night Oh what a garden of delight
DO SOL
Even now that sweet memory lingers
FA DO FA DO
playin' my guitar lying underneath the stars Just FA DO SOL-LAm
thankin' the lord for my fingers for my fingers
