

Guide to Interactive E-books

Thank you for purchasing an Interactive E-book from www.aomprofessional.com . To get the most out of your subscription, please review the following:

- Interactive E-book feature 1-year on-line access to class materials. At the end of the year, you will receive a notification email that access will automatically renew on an annual basis minus the initial set-up fee.
- To cancel your subscription at any time, please email us at: info@aomprofessional.com. Please include the title of the E-book subscription you wish to cancel.
- Depending on the class, E-books may include: notes, slideshows, clinical flow diagrams, graphics, sample chart notes, treatment plans, and video links. No specific guarantee is made as to the type and completeness of content.
- E-books are living documents, and may be revised by the author to improve your learning experience. Check back for updates!
- E-books are not approved for CEU/PDA credit, and may not be converted to CEUs/PDAs at a later date. Purchase of E-books does not apply towards Certification in Integrative Acupuncture Orthopedics through www.aomprofessional.com
- The authors welcome your constructive critiques to enhance the learning value of the Interactive E-books. You may email feedback to info@aomprofessional.com

Here's how Interactive E-books work:

1. You will receive a username (your name spelled as one word) and randomly-generated password via separate email from info@aomprofessional.com. (If you do not receive the email within 24 hours, please check your spam filter, and/or add info@aomprofessional.com to your whitelist, and then let us know to re-send you the login link).
2. Log in to your account, then either:
 - a. Click on “My Notes/E-books” or
 - b. Click on “Library” at the menu at the top of the Home Page at www.aomprofessional.com.
3. Logging in will give you access to the Library of E-book(s). Find your E-book(s) and click on the link in the “View Notes/E-book” column. The E-books may contain a slideshow, detailed notes in Google Docs form, and sometimes graphics which may include Google Drawings, .pdfs, or other on-line document types. Some documents may also contain links to other documents or videos.

4. Documents are listed in a sequence designed to provide both the best educational experience and easy reference. You may view them in any order, and study at your own pace--no need to log in at specific times or complete review of one document before moving on the next.
5. Within the Slides and Notes, you can:
 - a. Read sequentially, browse, or search for key words: from the menu in the upper left, go to Edit > Find and Replace > enter search term (don't worry about replacing, your account will not let you edit the document).
 - b. View other reader's comments, instructor replies, and discussion threads in the sidebar to the right of the document (side-bar discussions are designed to be viewed on computers only, and may not be visible on mobile devices).
 - c. Ask your own questions, post comments, or join a discussion thread:
 - i. Navigate to the word, sentence or side-bar comment that inspires your question/comment.
 - ii. Click on the "Comment" icon in the upper right corner (just to the left of the "Share" button).
 - iii. Post your comment/question, which should appear in the sidebar (depending on the number of other comments, yours may or may not appear directly to the right of the text).
 - iv. The author/instructor will receive notification of your comment/question, and will respond as soon as they are able. Other E-book readers may also respond with questions or comments.
 - v. If your comment is urgent or time-sensitive, you may also send it in email form to info@aomprofessional.com, however, we are unable to guarantee replies within specific time-frames. We encourage E-book readers to post comments rather than send emails, so that other readers may benefit from questions and discussions.
 - vi. If your questions are highly-individualized and specific to your unique scenarios, require complex or time-sensitive responses, fall outside the E-book topics, or exceed the length, number and frequency for which the side-bar discussion threads are designed, the instructor may ask that you engage their services on a consultant basis to continue discussion and better meet your needs for guidance.
 - vii. Questions and Comments may be edited or deleted by the author at any time. Edits/deletions may occur if a comment is accepted by the author as a helpful correction or enhancement of the material, and/or to preserve the readability, focus, and professional orientation of the document. If you have questions about why a comment or question was edited or deleted, please email info@aomprofessional.com. Google Doc archives the document history so questions and comments may be restored if deemed necessary by the author.
