

King Kamonzi is an international Reggae/Dancehall and Hip Hop artist whose powerful message of peace, love, and unity has reached audiences across the globe. Based in the Midwest United States, Kamonzi has toured in over 87 cities worldwide, performing at renowned festivals including Rock in Rio (Brazil), Montreux Jazz Festival (Switzerland), and MTV Rome Concert with Rihanna. His dynamic sound blends reggae, dancehall, Afrobeat, and hip hop, resonating with people of all backgrounds.

Recently, King Kamonzi traveled to Jamaica where he collaborated with legendary reggae artist Tilly Roots and rising star Razy B on the tracks “There is a Land” and “Know Vaccination,” both accompanied by visually striking music videos. His newest single “Everyday” offers a gritty yet hopeful anthem for those navigating life’s challenges, and is now available on all major streaming platforms.

Whether performing solo or with his band, Kush Trio, King Kamonzi delivers high-energy performances that move crowds and inspire change. As he continues to create and tour, his music remains a global force for unity and upliftment.
