

2025-2026 Clubs

Club Name	Description	Who can join	Person Leading	Meeting Times
Battle of the Books	A schoolwide competition where students form teams in their ELA classes, read books from our list, and answer trivia-style questions.	Anyone can join	Karen Pitts	Students meet with their teams whenever they can arrange it and practice until competition time in January-March
Beta Club	Academic Leadership and Service National Organization	Students with a 90 or higher average in all classes. No behavior referrals. Solid attendance record. Must attend meetings and perform 10 hours of community service during the year.	TBD	Once a month (club day) and community service days.
Board/Card Game Club	Students who enjoy playing cards and board games. This is a great place to have fun and meet new friends.	Anyone	Dettmering	Club Advisement Days
Book Club	Students read a book and discuss it	Anyone can join	Karen Pitts	The club meets once a month in the morning
Builder's Club	Students interested in community service and engagement.	Anyone	Laurie Abt	Once a month on Tuesday afternoons, occasional check-ins on club days as needed.
Chess Club	A club for students interested in playing chess.	Anyone	Andrea Kipp	Club Advisement Days
Design a Lab Club	A student-centered club where students can create an experiment. The teacher will initially provide topics for students to design a lab. Students may have the opportunity to design their own experiment as the year progresses.	Anyone	Berry	Club Advisement Days
Drama Club	Students learn about the process of writing, costumes, staging, and acting.	Anyone can join	Tracey E. Pitts	Each Tuesday evening from 3:30-4:30
Drawing Club	A club devoted to drawing. Students will develop their drawing skills by learning and applying new techniques, as well as exploring different drawing mediums.	Any Students	Wesolowski	1st Tuesday of the month, After School
Eagle	Students will serve as leaders	Nominated by teachers and	Erin Nash

Ambassadors	among students and hosts for special guests and events.	selected through an interview process.	Caroline Rothschild
Eagle News Network	Students will produce a news show to highlight things happening around the nest.	Anyone is welcome to join, but once selected, they are expected to attend each week to produce a show.	Michael Xydias	Friday Advisement
FCA Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Students	Students interested in voluntarily exploring the life and lessons of Jesus and how to make our school and community better	Anyone who can show RISE	M Nash Lowery Walton Bevil	Clubs advisement monthly
JROTC	Our mission is to develop citizens of character dedicated to serving their nation and communities. Our goals are to train and equip Madras students in the following areas: 1. Flag raising and lowering 2. Color Guard training 3. Drill preparation & training 4. Marksmanship orientation 5. Participate in community service programs as needed/desired.	Anyone - Especially students who are interested in their future high school ROTC programs	Carter	Once a month - Determined by NGHS JROTC Instructor
Lead to Succeed	Boys Leadership Academy, administration nominated.	Nominated by Administration	Michael Fannin	Check in weekly.
Library Club	Students assist in the library	Anyone can join	Karen Pitts	Will be assigned a morning each week to help
Liturgical Dance	Students express themselves through dance by utilizing music that inspires and uplifts them.	Anyone can join	Tracey E. Pitts	Each Tuesday evening from 3:30-4:30
Madras Oratorical Team (January)	Oratorical: Students write and perform an original speech in front of judges. Speech must address a specific prompt regarding optimism.	Students interested in strengthening their public speaking. Open to all grade levels.	Lindsey Hausmann	Practice begins in January when the prompt is available. (Oratorical)
MathCounts	Students engage in rigorous mathematics through competition	Anyone who scores in the top 12 on the entrance test	Abigail Acosta	Wednesdays after school until 4:30
Mathematical Puzzle Challenge	Students engage in rigorous mathematics through competition	Recommended by the teacher	Abigail Acosta	Occasional meeting after school or on club days (TBD)
National Junior Honor Society	Academic Leadership and Service National	Students with a 93 or higher in all classes. No behavior referrals. Solid attendance record. Must attend meetings and perform 10 hours of community service during the year.	TBD	Once per month (club day) plus community service days.
Painting Club	A club devoted to painting. Students will develop painting skills by learning and applying new techniques, as well as learn about different paint mediums.	Any Students	Wesolowski	2nd Wednesday of the month, after School
Pet Lovers Club	A club devoted to learning about animals and their well-being.	Anyone	Heather Hayes Kirsten Schober	Club Advisement Days: once every other month.
Podcast Club	Capture and celebrate the excitement of school sports and	Any students.	Jimmy Countryman	Club Advisement spirit through engaging, student-produced podcasts.

Running Club	A club for students interested in running to improve their athletics and de-stress.	Any students or teachers	Zach Galatian	Monday Afternoons - Follow Google Classroom Schedule
Sculpture and Ceramic Club	A club devoted to sculpture and ceramics. Students will develop skills by learning and applying new techniques, as well as learn about different sculpting mediums.	Any Students	Wesolowski	1st or 3rd Wednesday of the month, after School
Service Squad (7th grade)	Students interested in assisting teachers with planning 7th-grade events and special occasions.	7th graders who have passing grades, no discipline referrals, and no missing work.	Lashley	Club Advisement days
Service Squad (name possibly to change after members vote)	Students interested in assisting teachers with planning 8th-grade events and special occasions.	8th graders who have passing grades, no discipline referrals, and no missing work.	Andrews	Club Advisement Days
Stressed Out Student Club	We will learn to manage the stress of being a middle school student.		Celeste Pranglely	Club Advisement Days.
Student Council	Student council members will develop leadership skills, serve the school and community, and express their ideas for improving the school.	Elected by Home Rooms	Herbert Betts Caroline Rothschild	1x per month
Trivia Club	Students who enjoy playing trivia, challenging their minds, and learning new facts. This is a great place to have fun and test your knowledge at the same time!	Anyone	Sparling	Club Advisement Days
Yearbook Club	A small group of students who aid in the creation of the yearbook.	Selected through an application process	Andrea Kipp	After school on Thursday, 1 to 2 times a month.