

We take your privacy and the security of your data seriously. This Privacy Policy outlines how we protect your information when you use our Chrome extension.

Information We Collect:

Our Chrome extension does not collect any information from you. Any data entered by you, such as tasks, themes, names, is stored locally in your own browser's storage. We do not have access to this data nor do we store it on our servers.

Use of Information:

We do not use or share any data with third-party services. Any data entered into the Chrome extension is used solely for the purpose of providing you with an optimal user experience. We do not sell, rent, or trade any data with third-party services for any reason.

Data Security:

We have implemented appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security and integrity of your data. We regularly review our security practices to ensure the safety of your data.

Changes to this Privacy Policy:

We reserve the right to modify this Privacy Policy at any time. If we make changes to this policy, we will post a notice on our website and update the "last updated" date at the top of this page.
