

Subject Line: Triple the engagement on Your Facebook Posts.

This email will revolutionize your business...

Hey guys, I stumbled upon your Facebook account by chance, and as a digital marketing professional ONE thing caught my attention.

I noticed that your posts don't get a lot of likes/shares compared to your number of followers (without intending any disrespect).

So, I've rewritten one of your posts (on the absolute Collagen) in order to maximize the attention and engagement by:

- Articulating their pains more concisely (more than the reader can themselves).
- Showing how fantastic their life will be after the product takes effect (using kinesthetic language).
- Presenting the unique mechanism of the product in a very compelling way.
- Encouraging them to buy the product right away at one of your multiple points of sale.

I can send you this ready-to-use post right now (for free).

If this suits you, simply reply to this email!

Best regards,

Yuchan.
