6. Who Should Do It?

A. An Italian boy, who is in Britain for the first time, talked about the weather, "I can't understand it. I've been here for over a week and I still haven't seen any fog!"

B. A Japanese student from Tokyo said, "I've been in Britain since April and have been living with a British family. I've noticed one big difference between British and Japanese families. British men do jobs like cooking, washing up and ironing. They're jobs which I've never seen Japanese men do. They think it's women's work. But I don't agree with it!"

C. A German student at a language school in Oxford said, "I thought Britain was a modern European country — you've been in the EEC for years now. So why do you still use miles, Or pints and pounds instead of kilometres, litres and kilos? And why do you still drive on the wrong side of the road?"

D. A Danish girl who works as an "au pair" in Liverpool said, "I came to Britain a month ago. I've noticed one very strange thing here. After British people have washed the dishes, they never rinse them. They just take them out of the dirty, soapy water and leave them to dry!"

E. A Swedish girl said, "I've watched a lot of television since I arrived two weeks ago. British television's brilliant! But the "programmes" which I've enjoyed most are the advertisements. They're very funny or very clever, or both. Back home in Sweden we don't have any TV advertisements at all!"
