

Privacy Policy – PlanBoost Pro

Last updated: August 22, 2025

PlanBoost Pro (“the App”) respects your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains what data is collected, how it is used, and your rights.

1. Data We Collect

- User-entered data: Services (name, price, duration), appointments, and notes you create in the App.
- Calendar access: The App integrates with Apple Calendar to create and display your events.
- Notifications: The App requests permission to send local reminders for upcoming appointments.
- iCloud (if enabled): Your data may be stored in your personal iCloud account to synchronize across your devices.

We do not collect analytics, advertising data, or personal information beyond what is necessary to provide the features of the App.

2. How Data Is Used

- To create and manage your appointments.
- To calculate income statistics.
- To synchronize your data across devices via iCloud (optional).
- To notify you of upcoming appointments.

Your data always remains under your control and is never shared with third parties.

3. Data Storage

- On device: All data is stored locally on your device.
- iCloud: If synchronization is enabled, your data is stored securely in your Apple iCloud account. Apple’s security and privacy terms apply.

We, the developers of PlanBoost Pro, have no access to your iCloud or personal data.

4. Third-Party Services

The App does not include third-party analytics, advertising, or tracking frameworks.

5. Your Rights

As the App stores data locally and optionally in iCloud, you have full control to:

- View, edit, or delete your data directly within the App.
 - Remove the App to delete all local data.
 - Manage or delete iCloud data via your Apple ID settings.

6. Children's Privacy

The App is intended for professional use and is not directed at children under 13. No data is knowingly collected from children.
