

Examining Belief: Archetypes

Archetypes are a controversial Jungian concept. Many critics today dismiss them completely. Others argue that they're clearly there in dreams and myths. Still others debate whether they are psychological as Jung says or culturally implanted in young children.

Define the term archetype:

List some archetypes (or potential archetypes) you can think of in myths with which you are familiar:

psychological inheritance vs. culturally implanted?