

GRAMMAR – Phrasal Verbs Word Bank

Fill in the blanks with the phrasal verb from the word bank that matches the definition.

called off	work out	still on	aim at chicken out		look forward to	put off
counting on	tied up	allowing for

1. Don't _____ (decide not to do something you planned because you feel scared) of the double date!
2. Is dinner at your place _____ (when a certain event that was thought to be canceled, is put back into action)?
3. I _____ (to be excited about something) seeing you this weekend.
4. I'm sure we can _____ (finding the time to meet up with someone) a time for us to meet.
5. Did you hear? Our boss _____ (to cancel something that was scheduled) the staff meeting.
6. He's _____ (to expect something to happen) you to pick him up from the airport.
7. The concert is _____ (to delay something to a later date) until next month.
8. I _____ (to hope to achieve something) getting my GED by next summer.
9. It will take about an hour to get there, _____ (to take something into consideration when making plans) traffic delays.
10. She's _____ (to be extraordinarily busy) cooking for Thanksgiving dinner.

-