

Station 2: Native American Voices—Found Poetry Worksheet

Empathize with what people were experiencing, and infer what they may have been thinking.

|  | Rex Buck, Wanapum | Russell Jim, Yakama Nation | Veronica Taylor, Nez Perce Tribe |
|--|--------------------------|-----------------------------------|---|
| Part 1: What I heardWrite one direct quote from the interview that is important to you or causes an emotional response.  |                          |                                   |   |
| Part 2: What does the interview tell me about what Native Americans people may have been thinking?Write one thought you imagine a Native American person may have had. |                          |                                   |   |
| Part 3: What does the interview tell me about the U.S. government?Write a thought you imagine the U.S. government may have had.  |                          |                                   |   |