Division Reports –

Band –

- Picnic Pops was on May 18, all 3 bands performed and did very well.
- Symphony Band is getting ready for our Graduation performance at EMU on June 2nd.

Choir –

- Blues at Chelsea High School's Kaleidoscope Concert last week
- Spring Concert - a big success. Proud of our seniors and all!
- Video filming begins.
- VPAA Awards Ceremony next week: Em Barrett will stand in for Mrs. Cie (Mrs Cie wrote the speech)
    - Important: Due to conflicts, Em must go first, right after the boosters.
- Camp meeting soon. Camp checks coming in.
- AAPS issue: elementary schools are being built without permanent performance spaces. Will have domino effect as students move. Guidance coming soon to help parents fight this.
- Kim and Beth to talk soon to help guide transition of choir rep role.
- Blues auditions happening on Tuesday, June 11, 2024 · 1:00 – 5:00pm.

Orchestra –

- Spring concert was May 14th. With special guest clinicians Rodney Page and Gean Almendras and Oboe Concerto by senior Catherine Lee
- Members of the orchestra are traveling to Sandusky, OH on Saturday, May 24th to compete in the Music in the Parks Festival and enjoy cedar point following the performance

Tri-M -

- Induction is June 3rd at 6pm. Over 20 inductees across disciplines!

Theatre –

- Anne-Marie is retiring this year.
- Hadestown was a success
- The Dumb Waiter is May 28th at 6pm - student one act

Visual Arts -

- Visual Arts will NOT be getting even a .5 teacher to come back for the coming school year. I will be losing sections of Ceramics in order to run Jewelry and Meredith will be co-seating multiple preps in order to run the courses that students signed up for. The school wants us to service students, but to date we are unable to do so. We need a parent movement to express the issues and inequities here. The district does not listen to us. Huron and Pioneer have more teachers and fewer arts students, Incoming freshman class is just under 400 students.
- Received $3000 Kiwanis grant for the fall
- NAHS for next year… moving forward with it in the fall.
