

AOM2 Richard K. Dewing

Location - West-N: R23, C28

Dick Dewing

Richard "Dick" Dewing, 67, of Oshkosh, died at his residence on Sunday morning.

He was born on July 28, 1921, in Mason City, Iowa, son of the late Earl and Gertrude Kelly Dewing, but lived in Oshkosh most of his life.

Dick served with the U.S. Navy during World War II and married Ruth Poeschl in Norfolk, Va., on May 6, 1944.

He was a member of Sacred Heart Church, the Oshkosh Eagles Club, and the Oshkosh Bowling Association for 40 years.

Dick managed St. Mary's Bowling Lanes and then the Eagles' Bowling Lanes. He also was the manager of the Eagles Club House and was currently semi-retired.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, James and Kevin, of Oshkosh; three daughters, Mrs. Mark (Connie) Stevens, of Oshkosh; Christine Mathewson, of Aurora, Colo., and Mrs. Richard (Diane) Ruck of Worthington, Ohio.; three brothers, Robert of Campbell, Calif.; John of LaVerne, Calif.; and James of Cornwall, England; and nine grandchildren.

AOM/2 Richard K.
Dewing, 121 Monroe avenue, entered the navy July 24, 1942,
and was discharged under the point system.

