

I want all the shit, complain tell me what i can improve on this copy. Cold out reach

Subject; God has sent me to your service.

Hi, I'm CJ, first of all I would love to say how amazing and courteous of you for your british heart foundation centre and charity shop, it is a wonderful thing you are doing. Funding millions and millions of pounds into research is incredible, that is the sign of a good heart.

After analysis on your web page and knowing your only providing your service for the greater good by helping the community, it has come to my knowledge that you are not getting the results you truly, utterly and completely deserve, in another sense your competitors are gaining more donations and attraction and it is heartbreaking.

What i can provide

- a slight change to your web page to convince your audience that you are the number 1 most god sent business with true intention, this will gain more donations to your charity for example, clothing, items even money donations.
- a change in your social media accounts, by posting and uploading content about your business to gain more traffic to your shop and this will drive your Facebook followers to your instagram, X and linkedin and visa-versa and scale to heights you have never seen, possibly getting all your accounts verified and gaining you more donations to your wonderful charity, we will have to see.

All for the greater good, and guess what i do not want money out of this at all, all i want is a few testimonials and some feedback on the difference of your business now and then after i work my magic.

If this is something you're interested in, please be sure to get back to me on this email and we can discuss further.

Kind Regards. God bless you.
