

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy includes important data about your personal data and Guangxi Xianban Network Technology("we", "our" or "us") encourages you to read it carefully before using Strike King Pro("App" or "Service(s)").

01.What data do we collect?

We only collect personal data to the extent necessary to fulfil one or more of its functions and activities and will do so only by fair and reasonable means. Generally we will collect your data directly from you, but in some circumstances, it may be necessary for us to collect data from a third party source.

We may use these log files, tags, and tracking technologies to collect and analyze certain kinds of technical data, including:

- the type of device you are using;

- your device's identifiers, like your MAC Address, Identifier For Advertising (IDFA, IDFV, GAID);

- your operating system version;

- your device language;

- Obtain the platform for this App; and

- the number of clicks on a page or feature.

When you use the App, you may provide your data directly (like when you're setting up your account) and we will store and use it for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

02.How do we use your data?

We are committed to delivering a relevant and useful experience to you. Depending on how you interact with us and the Service, we use your personal data to:

- Provide and manage your access to and use of the Service;

- Enhance and improve the Service, such as add new content and features;

- Notify you about changes, updates and other announcements related to the Service;

- Deliver targeted advertisements, promotional messages, and other information related to the Service and to your interests;

- Provide technical, product and other support and help to keep the Service working, safe and secure; and/or

- Respond to your requests, inquiries, comments or concerns.

03.Who do we share your data with?

We may share any data collected from the Services including aggregated or statistical data that we may generate from such data in the following ways:

Data collected through your use of the Services may be shared with select Analytics Vendors and Advertising Vendors that assist us with marketing or advertising campaigns for our brands, service providers that assist us with our business operations and provision of the Services, or delivering you the features and functionality that you have requested ("Technology Vendors").

These service providers include companies that support our advertising programs for our brands, provide data storage, support customer service, assist with audience research and product development, facilitate or deliver materials to you, and provide map content for the Services.

04.How do we keep your data secure?

We have implemented generally accepted technical and operational security standards to protect personally identifiable data from the loss, misuse, alteration or destruction. Only authorized personnel have access to personal data collected through the App; these individuals have agreed to keep this data confidential.

Although we take appropriate security measures once we receive your personal data, the transmission of data over the Internet is never completely secure. We strive to protect personal data, but we cannot guarantee the security of data transmitted to or by us.

05.How long do we retain your data?

We will retain your data for as long as is needed to provide you the Service; as long as needed for the purpose it was originally collected for; as long as we are legally obligated; or until we receive a request for erasure.

06.What are your privacy rights?

You have the right to correct your data, request deletion of your data, object to how we use or share your data, and restrict how we use or share your data.

07.Third-Party Services

We use advertising to help fund the App and we utilize and numerous advertising technology platforms to help deliver relevant advertising to you. We and the technology service provider may collect, receive, or use your personal data in connection with our use of the platform in order to provide interest-based advertising to you. In such cases the advertiser is acting as a controller of the data for its own purposes. Please refer to the privacy policies of our advertising partners for more data on how to exercise your rights and control your advertising choices.
