

Task: As a group, find ONE news story from this past weekend and answer the following questions. The story must be actual news relating to current United States or World foreign affairs. Your answers should be more than 1 sentence! You have the first half of the class to finish this. During the second half of the class you will be tasked with explaining this story to your classmates informally.

Insert the link to the story here:

1. What happened?

2. Where did this happen?

3. Why did this happen?

4. How does this affect the United States? If it does not, why?

5. What will be possible consequences? (talk with your table and discuss what MIGHT happen)

