'LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!' – Psalm 8:1 (NIV)

Worship is the _____ into another world to help you manage _____ one.

Psalm 8 title:
- 'for the director of music = sung _____
- 'Gittith = _____ instrument
- 'A Psalm of David' = David _____ it.

3 Movements:
1. Worship helps us see God's _____ (God, who are you really?
2. Worship helps us see our _____. (When we see God for who He is, we see ourselves through HIS eyes nor our rearview mirror)
3. Worship helps us see our _____. (and probably how to respond appropriately)

A. Worship helps us to see God's _____.

The ____ and _____ verses of Psalm 8 are the _____.

David never once in the Psalm asks for _____.

__ Psalms before & __ Psalms after Psalm 8 are called _____ Psalms.

Right in the middle of all this _____, David _____ asks for anything.

What if we reframed our idea of worship to a concept of _____?

If you can complete these __ sentences, then you can worship:
- Lord, you are _____.
- Lord, you have _____.

Psalm 8:1
- LORD = YHWH = '_____' (God's name)
- Lord = Adoni = power of the position.

B. Worship also helps us see our _____.

God does ____ see you as _____ or insignificant.

If the one _____ man who paid the penalty could put his spirit in _____, then you could be _____ to the role He created for you.

C. Worship helps us to see our _____.

Your greatest _____ is not what you say about God, it's about what _____ say about God _____ of the way you live.

Recognize God for who __ is, because when you do that you'll see yourself _____ and then you can take _____ to make a world out of the earth that ___ has given us.

Reflect on these questions this week:
- How does music help you worship God? How is it a barrier?
- What responsibility has God called you to?
- In reading this Psalm, what changes can you make to align more closely with God's view of you?
