

Class _____ Project # _____ Date: _____

Your Name: _____

Your Group Member Names: _____

My Own Summary of _____

Part #1: Introduce your disease

By: _____

English:

N.L.

Sources:

Part #2: Statistics of the disease

- a. How many new cases in the US? What year?
- b. How many new cases in your Native Country?
- c. How many people die from it?
- d. Who gets it most frequently?

By _____

English

Native Language

Sources:

Part #3: Cause (Virus? Bacteria? Parasite? Fungi?)

- a. What causes this disease?
- b. What are the different parts of (virus/bacteria/parasite/fungi)?
- c. How does it enter the body or the cell?
- d. How does it cause the disease?

By: _____

English

Native Language

Sources:

Part #4: Symptoms (Effects on the Body)

- a. Which system, organ, or cell does it affect?
- b. How does that system, organ, or cell work in a health person?
- c. What happens to that system, organ, or cell in a sick person?

By: _____

English

Native Language

Sources:

Part #5: How does it spread?

By: _____

English

Native Language

Sources:

Part #6: Diagnosis (How do health care providers check if one have it?)

a. What tests are available?

By: _____

English

Native Language

Sources:

Part #7: Treatment (What do one do when one has it?)

- a. Can it be cured?
- b. What are the different treatments?

By: _____

English

Native Language

Sources:

Part #8: Prevention

- a. What should you do to prevent yourself from being infected?

By: _____

English

Native Language

Sources:

		4	3	2	1
L010 -	I can refer to sources that support my position.	I consistently refer to sources that support my position.	I sometimes refer to sources that support my position.	I refer to a source that supports my position.	I do not refer to sources that support my position.
L012 -	I can represent content from reading materials.	I can consistently represent content from reading materials accurately.	I can represent content from reading materials accurately.	I can represent some content from reading materials.	I cannot represent any content from reading materials accurately.
WH02	I put effort into my work	I complete my work thoroughly	I complete my work	I attempt my work	I do not attempt my work