Episode 28 - Part 2

A Dark morning

The night had been hard on Sweetiebelle,

Ditzzy: So hard she forgot how to spell her name!

she would turn and scream, an unending stream of tears riddled her sleeping face as her dreams tortured her mind.

Ditzzy: It was a dream where she was hanging out with other ponies and making friends with them instead of brutally killing them.

Doctor: What a nightmare!

Astral had awoken very early and moved to the balcony of the hotel, the screams echoing until a knock came to the door, six fifteen in the morning,

Trixie: Animals. That is way too early to wake up in the morning!

must have awoken one of the other hotel room occupiers. Astral moved to it and answered, it was just one of the staff asking what was wrong, she placated him with a lie and said they would be gone soon.

Ditzzy: But since she was evil now, she refused to give him any sort of tip.

Finally Sweetie began to calm down as she stirred in the bed, moving to the left of the bed she sat up from the wet pillow, Trixie: Please don't mention wetness again.

jumping slightly when she saw Astral, "A-Astral-" was all she could say, too scared to say anything else, she shook with fear. Astral noticed this, Sweetie just yesterday lost all her friends in the fight Trixie: Stop acting like anypony actually cares about this! If you want us to feel bad then making you should have made them real characters!

and then watched her obliterate the ones who did it, anypony would be scared of a pony what could do that.

Doctor: No, it's more of the genocide thing I think.

Astral moved closer to the bed and used her magic to pick Sweetie up, "you smell and your fur is messy, you're showering and then you are taking a train home.

Trixie: What are you, her mom?

I told you this was too much for you and you didn't listen, now you have seen what I truly am Ditzy: A true nutter if I ever saw one.

and are afraid of that fact-"

Sweetie shook her head furiously, "NO, I am not scared of you," a clear lie, Astral knew she was, "I mean it, I was just shocked and with my frie..... my friends," Astral dumped her on the white plastic and with her magic turned the taps, the water ran over Sweetie as she began to cry.

Ditzy: They went to a super cheap hotel and the tub was nothing more than a large plastic container.

Doctor: (Twilight) Great, now we will have to pay for water damage.

Astral then made her way out calling back, "no arguments, you're going back-"

Ditzy: (Sweetie) Really? You mean it? Hooray!

Doctor: (Twilight) You don't have to be so happy about it...

It didn't take long before they were both finished,

Trixie: The lesbian subtext is strong with this one.

with no bags and only cloaks that they had they made their way to the trains station, Sweetie was reluctant but she did as she was told and boarded the train going to Ponyville.

Trixie: Great idea, get rid of the only character the audience cares about.

Astral stood there as two black guards passed her, one was a pegasi and the other was a unicorn. The unicorn stopped and looked at her, when he did he turned to walk toward her but as more passengers left the train that stopped he lost sight of her.

Twilight boarded a four car brown train, headed to Canterlot where she thought Sombra might be, I have to find him, once I do I get my friends back. I can go back to a normal life.

Doctor: Her murder tentacles will be perfect for sorting books in the library.

Snickering in her head stopped her thoughts, Normal, far from it Astral, you will come to see no need in friends or your petty mentor. For now hold onto your mind as I will take over soon, Eclipse said.

Doctor: Why are you speaking in red now?

Trixie: Why are you speaking a color at all?

Ditzy: Lame, shouldn't she be speaking a green color?

I won't believe that I would forsake my friends, that is why I accepted the evil, I will defeat Sombra and release them. Twilight held her breathe and cloaked her magic as another black guard passed, once he did she relaxed. the low thunk of the train wheels drilling into her, I won't let you have my body Eclipse, I will die before that.

Try to die if you can, Do it, sever our and and cut your limbs off. Nothing can kill us now Astral and you know it, Trixie: Really? So if she chained you up and threw you into the ocean, would you still live forever - trapped drowning for all of eternity?

I will forever keep you alive in endless torture even after your friends die.

Ditzy: (Twilight) That's awesome! Maybe I can finally finish my Steam library!

The words echoed in Astral's head, she didn't want to believe what she said but with what happened the day before anything could be possible.

Doctor: Everyone spontaneously turning into talking fish. Anything!

Astral was too caught up in her thoughts as a black guard began to pass, a unicorn no less and he had picked up her magic and turned to her,

Ditzy: Opps.

"YOU! you're the one from the train station," Astral jumped slightly, seeing him she leaped upwards on top of the second car, the guard followed. "Stop right there, don't move," He motioned to his ear as he mumbled something, Doctor: (Guard) I have get back to work dear. Tell Sary I love her.

noticing this Astral then heard the door from the third car open as another guard jumped behind her.

I don't need this shit, I am so close to Canterlot, not now! Why, is it bothering you that two measly guards stand in your way, kill them.

Doctor: Or you could just teleport to Canterlot.

I can't do that, I won't.

Ditzy: (Twilight) What about their families?

But you will, you need to do this, you heard nightmare, to beat Sombra you must accept me. Accept the darkness within you, you can't stop this.

Trixie: You are a broken record about that, aren't you?

The guard slowly moved forward, "put your hood down and lower yourself to the ground to stay away from being imprisoned, do this and no harm will come to you"

Ditzy: See, they aren't so bad. No need to kill them.

Doctor: Any particular reason you can't just — I don't know, just throwing out random ideas here: teleport away?

Trixie: But that would involve less senseless murder, Doctor.

Do it!

All: Do it! Do it! Do it!

The second advanced from behind her, the first called out again, "I said pull the hood down and this transaction of disrespect will be much less severe,

Doctor: Isn't Sombra's reaction to any penalty torture and death?

Ditzy: Oh, so if she gives up Twilight will only be mildly tortured.

if not we will be forced to take you down"

Ditzzy: (Guard) You will be tickled into submission.

Do it now, Embrace your anger and hate, feed that emotion, DO IT!!

Trixie: Let the hate flow through you.

"PULL THE HOOD DOWN! do it or I will attack," the guard said as a blue hue of magic wrapped his horn, the other guard unfurled his wings and bent down slightly ready to take off.

Last Chance Astral, Do it now, DOOO ITT!!!!

Trixie: That is like the eight time she's said 'Do it'.

Ditzzy: I guess it's her catch phrase now.

The two guards pounced forward as Astral rolled to her left nearly falling off the cart, the Pegasus kicked off the ground before colliding with the unicorn, lifting himself into the air and flapping with the train to keep up. The Unicorn stood back up and unsheathed his hidden blade, "I warned you, you insufferable criminal, Ditzzy: (Guard) Ugh, you are like so annoying.

I thought you seemed shifty back at the station," he swung his blade forward as it tore through Astral's cloak revealing her, her eye's glowing and teeth sharpened.

"Leave now and I won't have to do something I would regret"

Trixie: (Fights back laughter)

"No, I will take you in to custody"

In Eclipses voice Astral boomed, "LEAVE"

Trixie: Trixie wonders what red sounds like.

Doctor: My best bet is high pitched and squeaky.

The guard stumbled slightly but advanced on Astral swinging his blade, Trixie: Takes her head off and... oh right, she's immortal. (Sigh) Looks like we're stuck with her.

it slid through her skin slightly with every swing, small trails of red made way for the blade as it did.

Ditzy: Hey, this guy is actually pretty good.

Now stood in the middle of the car the Pegasus charged forward trying to grapple her, he grabbed one of her back legs but received a buck to the face, shaking off the sudden dizziness he sprang forward again but this time he stopped. Tendrils of black magic span in front of him as he dove off the side and began flying again.

Doctor: What did you think would happen?

Red mist started to seep from Astral as she snarled at the unicorn, Trixie: You should really see a doctor about that red mist. It can't be healthy.

a tendril flew forward as he dodged it, it didn't stop there though as it turned and wrapped his front leg. Where the tendril touched his skin bubble and his hairs began to get singed as his screams were muffled by the wind passing them, noticing this the Pegasus flew to hit twilight but passed right by her. When the unicorn saw him pass her the pegasi's wings tore off as he plummeted to the ground at hurtling speeds.

Doctor: At that speed? That pegasus must be made of play dough.

Ditzy: Come on! Rainbow Dash survives crashes like that all the time.

"I did warn you foals, I would do something I would regret but now I feel a little bit giddy," Trixie: (Twilight) It's murder time! It's murder time! It's murder time! It's murder time! It's murder time! It's murder time!

The tendril of sludgy darkness lifted the unicorn up into the air as Astral made her way to the front car, when she met the edge she grinned as the guard dangled and went wide eyed at the passing tracks and hard stone directly beneath him, "Do you want to know what would make me not drop you right now"

Trixie: Buying you a drink?

Doctor: Reminding you he's married with two foals?

The guard nodded with vigor, he shouted, "YES, PLEASE DON'T DROP ME, PLEASE"

"Then laugh for me with a smile, a big fat grin and laugh," Astral grinned devilishly, Doctor: What is she the Joker now?

she licked her lips at the display before her.

Doctor: (Mumbles) So much for not embracing evil.

Trixie: Ew, Trixie thinks she's getting turned on by this.

The guard was dangled upside down with a big smile slightly faltering, laughing as loudly as he could with tears coming from his eyes, "yes just like that, now I won't feel as bad,"

Ditzy: Because it's easier to hurt ponies if they have a smile on their face. I don't know. I'm not a murderous psychopath.

Astral made a fake pouting face as her tendril released him, he screamed as Astral teleported forward and turned.

Doctor: Hey, he probably survived that!

Ditzy: Little did Twilight know, a mare came along a few minutes later and brought him to a hospital. The two became fast friends and later fell in love. They got married and had 3 beautiful foals. And they lived happily ever after.

The train ground to a stop as it ran over the body

Ditzy: (Sighs) Nevermind. Can't anything nice happen for once?

sending his innards and other body parts flying on the track,

All: Our hero.

Ditzy: Um, what did he do to deserve this exactly? He was a pretty polite officer if you ask me. He was just doing his job.

Doctor: (Rolls eyes) Guilt by association I guess.

Astral began to cackle as her grin widened, suddenly she stopped as her face turned from insane happiness to one of horror, "what did I just do? how can I enjoy doing that,"

Doctor: And that scene was completely pointless because you could have run away at anytime.

she watched on as a few more guards exited to see what happened. They saw the body parts and armor and Astral heard them shouting as they searched, seeing this she pictured her old manor, Sparkle manor and teleported away to get away from what she just did.

Doctor: (Twilight) I've been a bad bad girl.

Trixie: Again, she could have done that from the very beginning!

Ditzy: There are a lot of things she could have done from the beginning.

A changed life

When she opened her eyes where she lay she could see a fire, she was laid in the front room, two chairs and a couch of brown sat in the room with pictures of her family hung around. Twilight stared at the picture hung above the fire, four ponies stood together, herself and her brother were on the front and then her dad and mom were behind them, a small tear fell as she heard hoofsteps behind her.

Doctor: She saw a pony riding a cart throw a can onto the street.

When she turned she noticed her father with a frying pan held in his magic,

Ditzy: Causing her to go into Instant Murder Mode and tears her father in half!

his once dark blue mane now gray and riddled with dead ends,

Doctor: He needs to take better care of his mane, which is why he should buy Dove Nourishing Oil Care Shampoo. Sure to smooth away any split ends with a single wash!

he shouted at the intruder in his house, "WHO ARE YOU, THIEF, GET OUT!!" never one for a shouter Ditzy: Never one for a shouter? I don't usually comment on bad grammar, but that one was particularly bad.

showed that he obviously couldn't tell the change that had happened.

Astral stumbled to her hooves and looked at her dad with loving eyes, Ditzy: Until she realized her family was stupid and bisected him with her murder tentacles!

she missed him so much at the end, all her friends and family flashed in her mind.

Doctor: Yep, kept pretending like that will actually matter in the end.

Now though sixteen years had passed and she was unsure whether the house would even still be there, "Its me," she said as her voice broke, Nightlight shifted slightly at the voice.

Ditzy: (Night Light) Moondancer? Is that you! Look how much you have grown! It's so nice to see you again!

He moved closer slightly and looked at her features for a minute as he processed her looks,

Trixie: And the fact she's caked with blood!

with questions running through his head

Doctor: Where did I go wrong?

Ditzy: Is it my fault she turned into a monster?

Trixie: Why didn't I push harder for an abortion? What? Don't look at Trixie like that!

and tears about to fall from his eyes he asked, "Twilight?" Astral nodded as her own tears fell slightly, Ditzy: She was only kinda emotional about seeing her father.

feeling completely lost she fell to the floor.

Trixie: (Twilight) What have I been doing with my life?!

Nightlight ran over and wrapped her in a hug as they cried, the light orange glow of the fire warming them, "How? y-y-you died, we even saw your horn," nightlight said as he saw her new one, "your horn!"

Ditzy: Tempest Shadow is going to be so jealous!

Astral looked up, "its different I know, I will tell you everything soon daddy but where is mommy?"

Trixie: Mommy? What are you, three?

the only reply she had was a saddened look, "no, nooo, NOO!!" she screamed as she pushed her face into her fathers chest. Minutes passed as her cry became sniffles, light drops of tears every now and then fell but her eyes showed she was numb, numb of feeling.

Doctor: Until she learns that it was Sombra who did it, gets mad again, embraces the darkness, and goes on a murder spree.

Ditzy: It's not going to be that predictable, will it?

Trixie: Trixie thinks you forget what type of fic you are reading.

"I am sorry Twilight, I couldn't stop them," Nightlight said as he moved back, "but now you're here I won't let them get you," he said with a stern look on his face, "that bastard took your mother and I won't let him take you-"

Doctor: Called it.

Ditzzy: Is there any particular reason she couldn't just die of natural causes?

Trixie: Because she needs another reason for revenge?

"Who did," Astral asked as her voice became slightly ghastly, "who took her and what happened," she looked up as nightlight slightly jumped at seeing her eyes glow.

"Sombra, he took your mother from me and..... and..." his teeth were gritted as tears fell from his scrunched up muzzle, "he piked her in front of a crowd along with many others as an example to us,"

Trixie: An example of why jaywalking is wrong and should not be tolerated!

he slammed a hoof into the ground braking the black tiles, Ditzzy: (Night Light) Night Light Smash Puny Tiles!

he then let out a scream of anger as his breathing became rapid. Astral laid forward and wrapped her dad again as tears fell from her eyes.

Venom leaked from every word as she spoke,

Trixie: And accidentally poisoned her father.

"I will do much worse to that bastard, I will make his death slow and show the world when I do.

Ditzzy: I will upload it to youtube and turn it into a meme!

I will enjoy every scream and wail with pleasure as he struggles in my grasp," her teeth grew with every word as her mane started to extend,

Ditzzy: That is really inconvenient. Manecuts aren't cheap!

"I will slowly impale him as he begs for mercy," her eyes split and glowed even more, "and when he is about to lose consciousness I will force him back awake to torture him more," her voice now more like the scratching of nails on a chalk board that equin, "I will enjoy every cut I make, he will die by my hoof and I will take pleasure in it-"

Doctor: Murder, death, etc etc.

Astral felt the hooves tighten, "I will not stop you Twilight.....

Trixie: You are a terrible father.

It's-its not alright to kill but that..... BASTARD deserves it,"

Doctor: Okay, but does it need to involve torture?

his eyes full of ferocity himself, "kill him Twilight, do it for your mother and your brother, cadence and your friends and then some more for what he did to the Princess', every scream he makes don't give him an easy death," Astral was surprised to hear her father agree instead of not stopping her.

Ditzy: In fact he proudly posted on Ponybook how much his daughter would pwn Sombra.

Everything has changed, Of course it has, look at our home, it use to be so lively until that fucker showed up. Make him pay dearly for everything he has done, He will Die, Ditzy: Note the capitalization to emphasize this.

painfully and we will enjoy every second of it,

Doctor: The audience on the other hand... will not.

Trixie: Enjoying so much that she forgot to speak in red!

Astral was merging slowly with Eclipse,

Ditzy: To become Astipse!

shocked too much from hearing of her mother and brother. Astral stood and looked at her father who also rose to his hooves, he nodded and walked through to the back room.

"As I said I won't stop you, I am coming with you, we will avenge everypony tonight," Trixie: Well, he's dead meat.

Astral was about to argue but her father glared stopping her, she was still surprised that he said nothing of her image change, "give me a few minutes as I pull my old armor out," Nightlight disappeared up stairs.

Trixie: (Night Light) And my wife said LARPing was a waste of a time!

Doctor: (Night Light) Just let me get my walker.

Astral waited downstairs as she was looking out of the window at the ponies who slumped past the window in cloaks, each muzzle down in a frown, she snarled at the guards who didn't look her way. She then heard the clink of armor and turned, glowing yellow eyes, dark blue armor and..... and dragon wings, Trixie: ...Really?

Ditzy: Okay, that's just silly.

"Dad, you have wings? how did you?"

Nightlight strode forward, apparently his daughter could tell his magic signature easily obviously and asked the question most do when they find the family secret, "I never got to hand

All: Hoof.

you this armor, at the end of tonight I will pass it down to you. Our family have been waiting for our ruler, Ditzy: Er, what?

we were the night guard, this armor was enchanted for battle.

Ditzy: Okay, then why do have dragon wings instead of bat wings?

When one wears it they gain either wings or a horn,

Doctor: Screw you, dirt pony.

if they were an earth pony they would gain both sometimes,

Doctor: Are there any particular rules for this or is it just random?

this was our family secret. The sister of Celestia was our ruler Trixie: You mean Luna? Why aren't you using her name?

but she was banished over a thousand years ago and we don't know where, she went crazy and attempted to kill many but our clan believe she will be back one day and she will come back reformed.

Ditzy: What? It's a popular legend! Everypony knows the tale of Nightmare Moon!

Trixie: (Night Light) But that's a tale for a more interesting story. Time to murder and torture things!

One day you could be the right hoof of her, I hope you will be any way" he said looking down at the armor, apart from the slight changes to his teeth and wings he looked the same.

Nightlight moved over to Astral, "Twilight, if you see me fall tonight, do not falter.

Trixie: (Night Light) Kill everything.

We do this for a bigger cause, we do this for everypony, Trixie: (Scoffs) Let's see how long Sparkleface remembers that.

If I die tonight avenge me by killing Sombra, end him."

"But dad you can't just sa-

"No but's Twilina Bella Sparkle,

All: (Burst out laughing)

Trixie: Nice... name, Sparkle. (Laughs)

don't drop your guard, don't ever be distracted from what we are doing.

Ditzy: (Night Light) And please don't fall for the 'book on the string' trick again.

No matter what happens know I am here," he placed a hoof above Astral's chest, Trixie: (Night Light) And I definitely won't die driving you over the edge, turning you into a cold-hearted abomination.

"your mother and the rest are also there, they will never leave you, I will never leave you, I love you darling.

Doctor: I did you wrong

Broke your heart and made you cry again

Well

And ever since that day you said goodbye

You made me realise

Darling I love you

I love you

I love you

Lets go, its time Sombra fell, this day we reclaim equestria,"

Doctor: (Night Light) All two of us!

Ditzy: (Night Light) Or die trying! Oops, sorry. That's a little insensitive.

he bellowed as he began to move, he moved to the kitchen and then shifted the table off the carpet it lay on. He then moved the carpet with magic to reveal a hidden door, "the hidden door that Celestia had us put here for you, hopefully he never discovered it."

Trixie: How could he? It was so well hidden!

Doctor: A curious filly like Twilight never found this?

the door swung open as a wall of cold dusty air flew out of the pitch black walk way. Nightlight went first and lit his magic to lead the way.

Trixie: (Night Light) Sorry about the beer cans and pizza boxes. I've been using it as my Stallion Cave. Me and the the boys come here every weekend to watch hoofball.

They walked in silence for around an hour, slowly making their way through the muddy soil and rats that ran past every now and then. A small draft passed at regular intervals, now though it was getting stronger meaning they were near the exit of the walkway, "Twilight, we are nearly there, get ready for the guards," as he said that the end of the walk way grew wider as a jagged opening looked over the courtyard of Canterlot gardens, guards riddled everywhere, an uncountable number. "Remember, no matter what Twilight, I am so glad you are back, be safe,"

Trixie: Yep, totally not going to die.

He leaned back and gave her a kiss on the forehead before jumping, meters away from the ground he unfurled his wings and hit into the back of a guard plunging his knife through him.

Doctor: (Guard) I was... a week from retirement!

More guards tried to rush him but Astrals tendrils tore through there bodies shredding them.

Trixie: Sparkle's tendrils are OP. Please nerf.

They began to run at the entrance of the gardens that lead to the castle as the guards chased them, Doctor: (Twilight) Huh, nice petunias.

Nightlight took guards down with magic and his sword severing limbs and heads as he moved. Twilight did the same as she tore through them, two unlucky enough to end up sharing a brain as she thumped them together smashing their helmets and skulls in the process.

Ditzy: Ponies seem to be nothing more than bag of exploding blood and meat in this fic.

More guards came and the two cut a path until they hit the gates, the guards were trying to stop them from getting to the switch to open them up.

"GO! OPEN THE GATES TWILIGHT!!" Nightlight screamed, battering against the swords of the guards, slaying one and taking his sword in magical grasp for more attacking power.

Trixie: It gave him an extra attack but he got no bonus damage from Str/Dex.

Astral nodded and then made her way forward, many tried to stop her as they screamed and dropped to the floor in pain, "MY LEG!!", slash, "MY FACE!!"

Ditzy: (Guard) My appendix!

A tendril shot forward impaling two guards and lifting them into the air before flinging them over onto the spikes of the gates, the guards were dwindling in numbers the further she pressed.

Ditzy: (Guard) Uh captain, this doesn't seem to be working. Should we fall back and come up with a new strategy?

Doctor: (Captain) Idiot! Keep charging! We will wear her down eventually!

Ditzy: (Guard) But she's killing us with almost no effort! She doesn't even look winded!

Doctor: (Captain) Quit whining and attack!

All the guards could do was wait for immanent death until one got a lucky shot and impaled her chest from the left, blood spewed from the gap, puncturing many organs.

All: Yay!

Ditzy: Wait, are we supposed to feel bad about this?

Doctor: Apparently.

Trixie: Trixie's not. She's a monster. Why should we care what happens to her?

The last of the guards cheered in joy as Astral coughed blood only to have their hope crushed along with the attackers face, she lifted up as a massive grin was splattered across her, she began to giggle, Ditzy: (Twilight) I have a healing factor now I guess.

though the sound was more of a gurgle from the blood of her throat and chest.

Doctor: It was more funny than scary.

Seeing how the mare reacted the guards backed up slightly, slowly one guard turned to run as electricity ran through his armor killing him, "Attack her, we will die other wise,"

Doctor: (Captain) In King Sombra's army there's no room for quitters!

Ditzzy: Sombra doesn't believe in self preservation.

The guard who shouted it died instantly,

All: (The Price is Right Losing Horn)

the other guards watched the tongue flap after the top of his head was cleaved clean off, a second later and the rest dropped to the floor. Tendril after tendril the guards suffered much worse deaths than those before them.

Ditzzy: I'm not sure how that is possible, but okay.

Trixie: Our hero everypony!

Everypony in front of Astral died, save but one holding a sword in magical shakily, he breathed rapidly as her hoofsteps made him jump at every step. Astral was so close now she was muzzle to muzzle with the shaking guard, "Aw, how cute, you are shaking. Whats wrong, do I scare you, are you going to run away. Tell me, are you going to use your sword to pierce me, slowly before you tear my skin, then faster as your breathe becomes raged, faster and faster,"

Doctor: (Guard) Uh no, I was just going to cut off your head and be done with it.

she moaned as the guard quaked in his boots, she licked her lips at the sight of it, "I would be fast if I was you, or else I might just," she leaned past his muzzle up to his ear, "bite!" she said and then bit down on his ear that protruded his helmet, quickly ripping it away as blood spurted onto her face, Doctor: That was really uncalled for.

she cackled with laughter as the guard dropped his sword and clenched his head. Astral moaned with pleasure, "that's it, that's the face I wanted to see, squirm with pain you maggot. Now to die," a tendril of sludge tore into his chest and dragged the guard up the wall until he was looking down at Astral, blood slowly dripped onto her face as she laughed.

Doctor: (Yawns) You see one guard get horribly dismembered, you've seen it all.

"Twilight stop!" A hoof placed on her shoulder made her spin around, another tendril flying at its target only to stop millimeters away from Nightlights face, "Thats enough, hes dead, open the gate," Nightlight said as Astral gripped back on her sanity.

But that was just getting good, oh daddy why did you stop us, I can't keep killing I am losing my sanity, no I am not, I enjoy it when I tear flesh with my own teeth, her thoughts becoming more one with Eclipse, her minds voice now a joint of the two. Astral raised a hoof and pulled the lever and moved through the gate, they moved quick up to the entrance of the palace, it was now a walk of thirty minutes to the palace halls where Sombra should be.

Doctor: You know Twilight, talking to the voices in your head only encourages them.

Doctor: Unfortunately, Sombra was on vacation.

They made haste as guards started to come out of the shadows of the halls, again dying as soon as they got near the two,

Ditzy: That fact that they screamed at the top of their lungs when launching their surprise attack probably didn't help.

Nightlight was covered in as much blood as Astral by now.

Ditzy: You should have seen the selfie they made during the killing spree.

They got around ten minutes in when the guards could be seen pushing something down the hallway, two stood behind the contraption as one held a torch, he dipped it down as a large bang sounded off. A metal ball hurtled through the air and collided with one of the attackers head, Trixie: (Guards) Opps, forgot friendly fire was turned off.

it splattered up the windows as grey matter sprayed on the rest who stood there.

Doctor: Twilight didn't do anything, so why did it miss so badly exactly?

The guards next to the canon placed another ball in it getting ready to fire again, Astral nodded to Nightlight as she leaps over the guards and rushed the canon. The guards on the canon began rushing to get the gun powder filled into the canon but it was too late, they lit the end as Astral cut the barrel off, the powder ignited and exploded next to them, one guard died instantly, another had flown back yards away and the last had two legs and half the skin on his face blown away.

Ditzy: (Twilight) Sup.

Trixie: (Guards) Ah! Despite only being a small gunpowder explosion, it blew my body to shreds!

Astral grunted and spat at the downed guard who was now throttling at the mouth, "Deserved it, wanker, Doctor: What? Is she british now?

you don't fire balls at me when I am enjoying myself!!"

Ditzy: What if we fired squares at you? Would that be better? How about triangles?

Astral noticed the change in personality but ignored it,

Doctor: Murder first, moral repercussions....a distant tenth.

moving back to her dad who was struggling now with around nine guards on him,

Trixie: (Twilight) Noob!

she came slightly late as one guard slashed at a back leg as he dropped to his knees. Astral's rage sky rocketed as she used the tendrils to move faster, suddenly she appeared on the other side of the group. Each of the guards stared at each other as their necks steamed smoke, they then tried to turn their necks to look at Twilight but they all seemed to fall over, some tried to scream when they noticed what happened but they couldn't their bodies with their lungs were still stood.

Ditzy: Er, okay. Sure why not?

Then the bodies joined their heads on the floor,

Trixie: It's a happy reunion!

Nightlight looked a little surprised by what happened but got up with a limp, looking at Astral, "Twilight come on were nearly there," she looked at his leg for a second and looked back up, "Ignore it, I want to see that fucker die, even at the cost of my own,"

Doctor: I think by saying that, his chances of dying increased by at least 200 percent.

Astral giggled slightly and then pressed on, her father hobbled behind her trying to keep up.

Trixie: (Twilight) My father is dying and I don't care one bit!

Ditzy: Our hero.

Doctor: I've got a feeling we are going to say that a lot.

Her mood had changed, she had changed ever so slightly, the guards that came at her never even made it to Nightlight as they instantly fell to the floor, the white marble floor was sprayed red as blood drained from the accumulative of all the guards until they reached two familiar white oak doors, "SOMBRA!" She shouted before moaning in pleasure, "Knock knock, any one home~" she said before pushing the door open.

Doctor: Great, now she's doing cliché villain dialog.

Astral pushed forward into the room, she saw Sombra sat atop the throne, now crystal and see through. A few normal black guards were spread around the room and two smokey grey looking ponies made of mist held double ended spears stood under him. Nightlight hobbled in after her and snarled at the usurper king, "SOMBRA, we are here to claim Equestria back"

All: Make Equestria great again!

The king sat up and looked down at them, "And who hath the nads to claim right of throne, my throne no less, you jest. Who prey tell are you, old man"

Ditzy: (Sombra) I hath talkth likeht thisht soht youth taketh meth seriouslyth.

Astral started laughing and couldn't hold it in,

Doctor: Sorry Sombra but the pseudo Shakespeare speak isn't really working for you.

Trixie: Let's see how only this lasts.

"Sombra!! Oh fuck..... I really want to see you decapitated and piked, even more I want to study the sizes of how long your small intestine would reach compared to your big intestine. Cutting you will be heaven," She breathed in sharply as her cheeks became flushed and red at the thought of killing him.

Doctor: I think you have a problem, Twilight.

Ditzy: I know the perfect support group you could join for your problem.

The king scowled, "Who is this mare, she thinks of me easy kill,

Trixie: Constantly respawning him to grind for rare drops.

I will not stand for this,

Doctor: (Snorts)

WHO ARE YOU"

Trixie: Ha! Just as I thought! Loses it the very next sentence!

Astral giggled again and looked up, "Twilight Sparkle at your service my liege," The king looked shocked and stared at the mare who resembled Twilight.

Ditzy: (Sombra) Twilight! It's been so long! How have you been? We should sit down for a cup of tea.

"You died in my caves, I saw your dead carcass weeks after you began rotting, Doctor: (Sombra) You Guys Wanna See a Dead Body?

KILL THEM, KILL THEM BOTH," Sombra screamed as the guards ran at them with weapons bared, Astral bolted forward at them as blood and limbs flew around the room.

Doctor: Death, blood, ect ect. We get it.

The two mist guards never moved and watched on as their king sat upon his throne with a snarl, a few black guards decided to run and ended up dying from their enchanted armor, dropping to the ground as a burnt crisp after being electrocuted.

Doctor: Remember, always read the fine print. It might just save your life.

Astral fought the guards as her fur became matted with fresh blood, Trixie: So, you're saying that murder was making Zombie Twilight into a real filly?

she cackled with every swing of her blade, enjoying every kill she made.

Ditzy: (Twilight) The murder is so much fun! Why didn't I do this years ago? Who cares about books when you can stomp and tear the life out of ponies!

Sombra began to shiver slightly at the mare in front of him, not the feeble minded little filly but the insane demented mare that wanted his death.

Ditzy: But you had to admit that she had style!

Doctor: Ah, so the story is admitting that Twilight is worse than the villain now.

Her grin rivaled that of a Cheshire cat as her serrated teeth chattered from laughing, finding their way into a guard's neck or torso every few kills.

Doctor: Yep, have to kill every single one. Can't just incapacitate one or anything.

Trixie: How else is she going to get the maximum amount of EXP?

Nightlight was holding his ground but his leg was slowing him down, most of the guards were focusing on Astral so it wasn't anything worth noticing, he kept his eyes on the guards before him. Dodging to the left he was missed by a few centimeters as a sword swung at his neck, then thrusting his own sword forward he killed the guard but in doing so his left side was open and was cut by one of the guards making him falter. He dropped one of his swords so that he could stop the bleeding with magic as he slain the guard who wounded him.

Astral was getting closer to the step, the last guard in front of her was torn in half as skin and bone snapped across his barrel, the blood fell down onto her mane as she stepped forward, "Oh, over already, boo boo, I was having fun. Sombra, is that really the best you have for me, Its disappointing, tell me that these guys will be better," Astral asked as she pointed a hoof at the mist guards.

Doctor: Why didn't he do that in the first place? Sombra does know that he has to hire tons of new guards now right?

The two mist beings moved as they span the spears, one was held in a blue hue as the other was held in a green hue, they came at Astral with lightning speed. The spears came close to her muzzle as she dodged back, with over a two meter fighting advantage it would be hard to fight hand to hand,

All: Hoof to Hoof.

so Astral tried to use her tendrils differently.

She span her tendril forward letting the sludge be released at the mist guards, the two span the spears clearing all gunk that went their way, the blue hued guard created a barrier around the green hued one as he advanced. His spear snapped into two as he advanced,

Ditzzy: He broke his spear on purpose?

swinging them violently

Doctor: That isn't how you wield a spear. At all.

Astral then decided to make some blades for her self, she jumped away from them and concentrated as the tendrils began to pool at her hooves, it started to spread up her legs and then her barrel, her head was last and then it solidified. The sludge now looked like obsidian shards of armor, draped over her and was able to move like rubber, Trixie: It, unfortunately, protected her as well as rubber too.

Trixie: (Guard) I'm flattered, but I'm a married stallion.

Two sword hilts protruded from the sludge at her forehooves and she gripped them with magic, each came out of the ground at a length of a meter each.

Ditzy: Just the hilts though. Not the full swords.

Her mane seeped out of the line on the back of the helmet, her eyes split across the middle and began glowing as she grinned, "Playtime, Lets play,"

Trixie: Redundant statement is redundant.

she shadow shifted forward leaving black smoke where she just was, the mist guard jumped and span to where she appeared, barely dodging the glimmering obsidian aimed at his throat. It did not stop as she shifted again to behind him, the blade scraping the blue bubble as it cracked, the blue hue mist guard whimpered slightly trying to keep the shield up. The green hue span his two points at Astral for them to meet obsidian blade, sparks of bright orange flew from the blades as they dueled, slowly the blue shield began to spider web with every colliding strike of Astrals blades.

Finally her blade broke through and pierced the mist of the creature, surprisingly blood came from its head and splattered on the last parts of the blue shield as it stumbled backwards. Astral giggled as she swung the blood off the blade, when the shield fully dropped she stepped forward and swung with both her blades and the tendrils as she swung straight down from skull to the bottom of his barrel. After she moved her blades away the mist slowly drifted to the floor and back to Sombra, leaving a very malnourished looking brown stallion who was dead as he stood, his eyes glazed over milky.

Doctor: (Shakes head) If only Sombra properly fed him, he might have won.

Ditzy: Evil is stupid like that.

Astral turned on the second one as he tried to swing his spear, Astral caught it in her magical grasp and impaled the guards stomach and through him at a wall, he dangled there as the blood trickled down the spear, Astral slowly made her way over cackling, "Your dogs weren't very hard to put down, come now I will end your suffering," Sombra began to laugh loudly as he watched Astral turn to him, "whats so funny, I just killed nearly all your guards and you laugh,"

Doctor: (Sombra) I just remembered the Family Circus comic that was in the paper today. That thing makes me have fits of giggles.

Astral said as she stopped.

Trixie: Oh! Is one of them set to explode? That would be a great trap!

Sombra laughed again before speaking, "Truly you are malevolent, you have taken in darkness, Ditzzy: Is this Kingdom Hearts now?

now I must put a nail in thy coffin," His horn glowed as Astral took on a stance but Sombra did nothing as she saw the mist return from the guard, when he did that she turned and her heart nearly stopped.

"SHINING!! NOO~!" She had impaled Shining Armor onto the wall,

he dangled there with slow breathes, Nightlight saw him as he was slashed across the chest and dropped to the ground. Nightlight watched on with tear filled eyes as his daughter fell screaming, Shining's once marvelous white coat was not gritty and dirty, blood stains from cuts and clear bruising was shown across his body. His ribs protruded from his body, his stomach just larger than one of his arms, "No shining no, I am so sorry I didn't know, I am sorry"

Doctor: Well, I can certainly say that there was no way for her to avoid this. Nope, no way at all.

Trixie: Now you are just being smug about your 'no killing' policy.

Shining looked up but his eyes saw nothing, he mumbled something but they couldn't tell anything apart from, "Caa.....de.....nce"

Ditzzy: (Shining) You have something in your teeth. Bleh.

Astral moved to get him down but then the bottom half of Shining fell to the floor as his head fell, Sombra had sent a blade of black mist through him, Astral stood there looking up at her brothers face, his tongue dangling out his mouth.

Doctor: Kinda kills the tragedy of the scene, but okay.

Then she screamed, her mane began blazing like it was alight in red flames,

Ditzy: Twilight is evolving into Rapidash!

Trixie: Needless anger based powerup ho!

her eyes became pitch black as she advance on Sombra. Each swing of her blade was either dodged or stopped by Sombra, in her fit of rage she was an easy target as her front two hooves were cleaved away in black mist.

Trixie: Trixie was wrong this time.

Doctor: (Twilight) What a rip! This always works in anime!

She fell to her muzzle and looked up, only to have a hoof smash onto her face, "Twilight, do you know, you were the mare who used to torment my very existence.

Ditzy: Shouldn't it be Spike? He was the one who defeated you.

Now I see you are much like myself, maybe this is good for you, the world is not as easy as you think it is.

Doctor: Good is dumb. Blah blah blah.

Throughout all of these years I have been draining the elements and have been sapping Celestias powers for myself, you are no match," Ditzy: So, still no attempt to rescue Twilight's friends and the princesses who are still alive I guess?

He said as he released his hoof from her head so she could look up, all it caused was for her to scream again as she saw wings on his back, he grew taller as well, "Playtime is over," He said. He began by teleporting over to where her father lay, her eye that could see them became a pinprick as Sombra raised his hoof, slamming it down on her fathers head with a crunch.

Trixie: (Sombra) Why did I do that? I just bought these shoes!

"Now my dear, this time I will thoroughly make sure you stay dead,"

Ditzy: (Sombra) You will be super ultra dead!

Spears of pure black pierced through her and lifted her into the air as she looked down, terror and fear emanated across her very existence, Ditzy: (Twilight) Dear Celestia I'm gonna die! Oh hey, somepony dropped a bit over there.

"I will show the world what their savior has become Trixie: (Sombra) How badly a character can be mangled to the point they might as well be an OC.

and how futile it is to rebel against me, I shall crucify you in front of the nation,"

Doctor: So Twilight is... Murder Christ?

He said as they moved through the halls, passing all the dead without so much as batting an eyelash, he even stepped through the blood and guts as he trotted.

Ditzy: Cool?

They reached the balcony of the castle where the Princess would usually hold ceremonies and speeches, he raised his head as his horn glowed, "My dirty little subjects, Ditzy: (Sombra) Take a bath. You are really starting to smell.

hear me now, your savior and liberator has fallen,"

Trixie: (Pony) Uh, we had a savior?

some of the city had stopped and looked up at what was happening,

Doctor: Most didn't because this is the big city and they don't have time for such things.

Sombra flew off the balcony and rose higher up to the middle tower, a large spear of dark energy solidified in the wall. He slowly slid Astral onto it as it impaled her chest, blood dripped from her two legs as she stopped breathing, "This is what happens when you try to stop me, TWILIGHT SPARKLE raised from the dead to be killed again, you will have the same fate if you cross my path," screams of horror erupted from the city as they saw the mare dangling from the spear on the tower as Sombra glided down to the balcony, "That is all,"

Doctor: (Sombra) Now do back to your horrible dystopian lives.

He gathered magic as the clouds began to accumulate in the sky, suddenly lightning and thunder rained down on Astral hitting her directly, she screamed before becoming still, she died again.

Ditzy: Twilight is Frankenstein's monster!

Trixie: What? Why did she come back to life? Because of the lightning that also killed her? Whatever.

Sombra let out a huge laugh as he disappeared back into the castle, pulling the dead back to life in his mist,

Ditzzy: Oh that's nice of him.

making them puppets,

Doctor: (Hums 'I've Got No Strings')

little did he know he should have destroyed Astral completely.

Trixie: Sparkle is Cell.

Astral lost consciousness as she became cold, losing her senses she let everything go, it was the end.

Trixie: No, it isn't. We still have a chapter left.

Ditzzy: You sounded like you wanted to die for a minute there.

Trixie: I just might!
