

Jake and Kate Coaching

Refund Policy

Effective Date: November 2024

Jake and Kate's results & our clients' results speak for themselves. What we teach in Jake & Kate's Relationship Remodel and in The Connection Cove works. We do not want people to join who are not 100% committed to taking action & implementing what they learn inside our Design School.

For this reason, we have a STRICT no refund policy. If you plan to join, access the information & then refund, do not join. We cannot get back the information we share with you. If you join, you're all in - ready to take action & to get results.
