CREATOR'S NOTE: Hello! ^w^ I'm not usually a person who makes callouts on someone without anyone giving me the rights to, but since this wach of a Kirby fankid has been up into my brain day by day, I couldn't help but watch her every single breath in my body on her Tumblr to see what she has recently done.

As to recap, this is the document made for all the things this user did. As I consider them bad, for sure.

Another suggestion I forgot to add here, but since Divy doesn't currently have a Deviantart account, I wouldn't force you directly to block / report her due to her being active in another website. But it would be recommended if you think of doing so while or after reading this callout. Again, I won't force you. ;)

Just a quick update for the creator's note, here's where Divy and her whiteknights are at now + with Gemma being the creator of the server (please remind me when the link is invalid):

<https://discord.gg/4BaEmABYP9>

This user goes by the name of mistilteinn-magolor on Tumblr who has shared her interests with both Pokémon, Kirby and Sonic, mostly. Her other accounts are Squirreflight-N both on Scratch and YouTube, and another Scratch account owned by her by the name of TheRealRedSquirrel when she was disabled from her main Scratch account for numerous reasons.

She also goes by the names of Divy, Squirrel or Fiona. But I'm still going to call her Divy because that was name where I initially met her, and it will be included throughout the entire callout so that you won't be confused to tell the difference. She is also currently a 16 year old girl who lives somewhere in USA.

By as I remember back in September-October 2023, she then created a Discord account (magolorgemapples) and server, which had an immature touch to it.

Here is some proof:

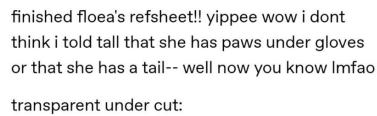

The 'that one server' sounds literally nothing. I only see people who make awesome and funny memes online and can only understand why they name their servers like that. You're just a minor which proves that not only you're doing this for fun, but you were too lazy to make pretty details on your server.

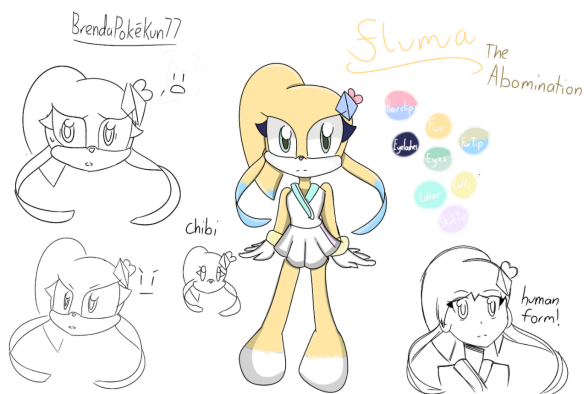

Continuing on the line however, I once joined her server; seeing it look like W.I.P or maybe the fact that she initially made the server until she removed me from the server.

Anywho, this is not the main case, but you know why I put it there for some reason. Now, for the most infamous part which I'm definitely adding here (this is a callout, after all).

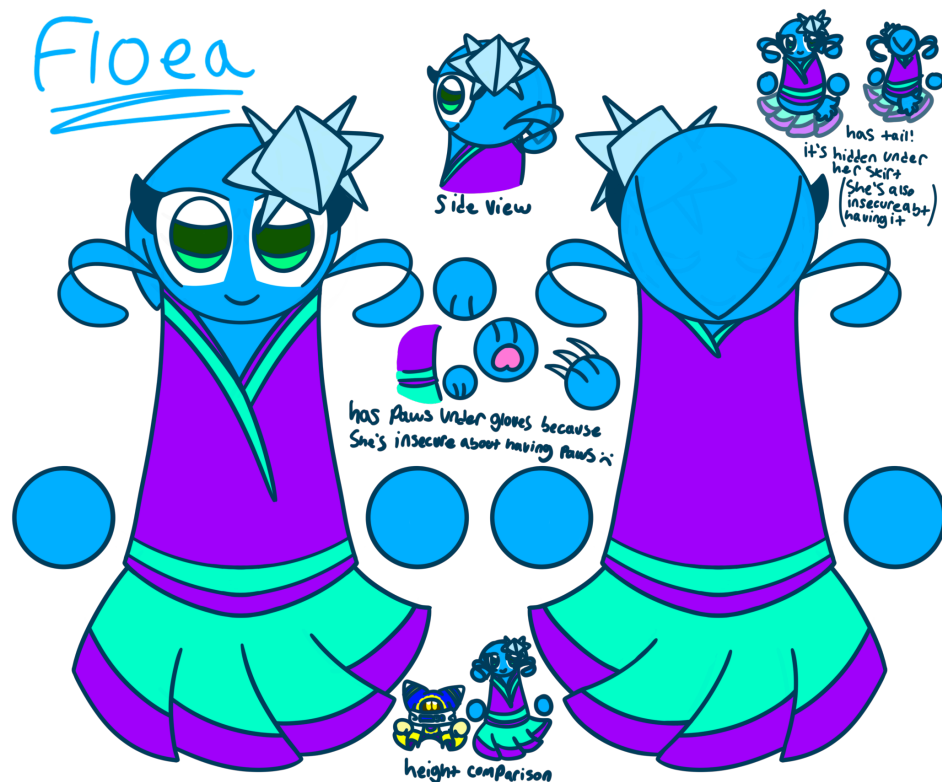

Since December 2024, just after I made an OC known as Fluma The Abomination - which I had thoughts about a Sonic OC with an undefined animal identification, I took glances at Divy's Tumblr again to see what she recently posted.

My OC (Fluma The Abomination):

Divy's OC (Floea):

Similar pigtails, similar hair clip, similar clothes, all that jazz.

Now I might be a total scumbag for this, but since this crap has been stuffing around in my head for so long, I can't take it. And I would like you guys to imagine what it'd be for someone just stealing most details from your OC inadvertently (secretly) and just getting more approbation for that even though your OC is more nice-looking.

I know you guys would most likely be like 'Oh. That person's OC has the same details as my OC, I guess I can let that go', and either way, it might be my autism just pushing me ahead, so I'll leave this topic be for now.

Now currently, I've been requested by an anonymous to draw Susie from Kirby making a suggestion about committing suicide while doing a cute pose.

(Also forgive me if you're one of the people reading this to gave me a request to draw something, I had a lot of things to do in the spare time outside of life)

And just after about three or four hours when I posted the artwork on Deviantart, guess what Divy has posted.

me when i redraw a redraw of a redraw

And this was my original artwork of it:

This just shows that Divy has not only been an OC snatcher, but also an ART THIEF!

And not to mention back in May last year - which I forgot to mention before the Susie incident, Divy was also found to be snatching my Sylveon artwork.

chat did i cook

Yeah, you did cook by just SNATCHING someone's hard work which they've made by almost a YEAR ago.

Anywho, this is all the plagiarism she committed as I can know for now on.

And by seeing her main introduction post, I'll give you a nice peek of the mentioned characters she adores.

enjoyer of shadow the hedgehog, magolor, squirrelstar, kasane teto, fiona fox, ivypool, frostdawn, cyn, n harmonia, serial designation n, volo, merlina the wizard, sylveon, meowscarada, iono and tinkaton

As you can see, she is a fan on a lot of characters. But what really bugs me is that she is an enjoyer of a Pokémon Trainer aka an adult known as N Harmonia.

Now, I know it's not bad to be a simp of him, but just reminder I've been seeing him shipped with other characters that are minors recently. And I can tell that Divy's persona might've been shipped with N, I don't know.

However, that just makes N himself look like a PEDOPHILE!

Oh. And I forgot to mention about Divy's persona which I'm going to include, callout or not, just thought it was important.

There was a lot of unrecognizable looks and a massive load of her persona and I'm sorry about that.

And fun fact: Divy also had a YouTube account that had about over 500 subscribers back in 2023 until her account got deleted for a reason of emergencies.

She had a ridiculous amount of attention back then by posting videos that under a minute, and if her account was still there, she would've been a trend by now, which thank god she isn't.

Her old account can be archived here but with poor quality if you want to see it yourselves:
<https://web.archive.org/web/20230331233301/https://www.youtube.com/@squirrelflight-n>

But my god, 2023 was almost Divy's movie year but thankfully she went on hiatus until late August by the time.

But since last year she is continuing to get God's Blessings by her friends on a Discord server that Happy / happywings101_93460 (one of her friends that actually used to be my friend as well until now) recently made for her friends.

Again, I used to be Happy's friend until she threw a fit at me like a drunk ass would do. And whom I'm going to make a callout on soon because she will continue making this negativity towards me when I'm trying to be nice.

I was even in the server as well but unfortunately couldn't screenshot or find any footage of her saying bullshit against me after she removed me. But I can prove myself I've been mentally abused by her all the time without any support and she even blocked me on Discord and doing all these gay freaky shit against Divy and the rest of the people she calls her 'friends'.

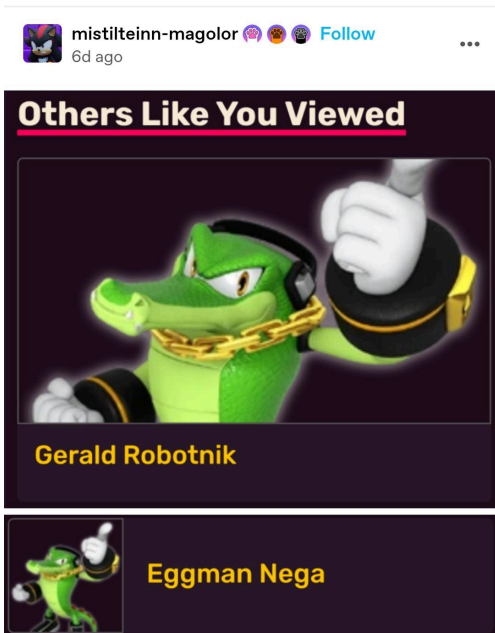

And Happy even made a Deviantart account here, so feel free and block her if you please:
<https://www.deviantart.com/happywings101>

Anyhow, moving on to the other Divy stuff from now on.

This is unfortunately all the things I can remember and count of the things Divy committed. If anyone has seen her do another reprehensible action, please contact me so I can add the topic onto the callout here. It would be grateful if you helped.

5 / 2 / 25

So I've been seeing more content of Divy which she became to be a comedian at posting dumb shit on her Tumblr page.

I never knew that people from Tumblr can be so fucking lobotomy-required.

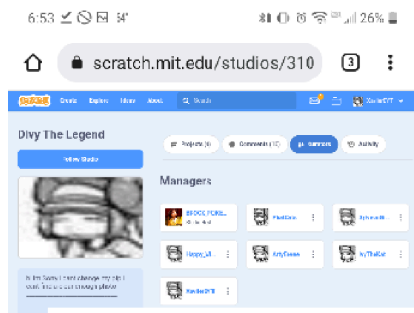

Also forgot to mention about something from 2022 that was pointless yet needed in this callout when I first met Divy.

Basically she got banned from her older account (DivyTheLynx before Squirrelflight-N / TheRealRedSquirrel) back in January 2022 and her friends especially Happy were extremely aware and was forcing the Scratch Team to unban her by commenting stupid shit like #UNBANDIVY, knowing fully well at their young age that the Scratch Team wouldn't respond at stuff like that.

It even happened to a much popular scratcher by the name of moss-shadow, whom was thankfully unbanned by now.

Until Divy made her new account, Squirrelflight-N, everyone then treated her like Marilyn Monroe.

I've explained too much of this situation but here is the proof:

Again, sorry for such poor quality.

The profile picture with Whitley aka Whi-Two getting groomed (which was shown by the screenshot above) was Divy's old profile picture from her old account.

Thank Jesus I didn't even try for once.

(I love Lack-Two better bleh)

I've had a rough day that tormented me so much to continue on this.

Divy is currently on hiatus at the moment and I just wanted to point out the stupid shit she's recently done over god knows how long.

how would you guys feel if i posted about an au that's incredibly self-indulgent and tailored specifically for me said au being a shadow/magolor swap au, where each keeps their backstory and its effects, but the universe and story after their backstory are the other's (ie, shadow is still the ultimate lifeform made by gerald, but stole the master crown)

Just a little bit of an update since Divy has made two Tumblr posts recently.

She's having an attention-seeking seizure in the middle of some Deltarune bullshit.
(Please ignore whats in the middle of the screenshot, I'm too lazy to even edit)

I'll now continue on the Scratch content this sixteen year old has in the past stock.

TW - Disturbing imagery (should've added it earlier but this is 2x worse)

She now responded on her Scratch page about Deltarune porn continuously.

It's not necessarily porn but the way she treated the spoilers is beyond disapproving.

..That isn't even suspicious at all.

I also forgot to introduce her whiteknights she has on Scratch as well, which in matter of fact, a long story.

So first and foremost, we got her infamous irl friend by the name of Mason (TheRealRedNinja).

Basically nothing wrong with him really, but he was part of the reason why the #UNBANDIVY situation started back in 2022.

Either he is manipulated, or possibly is just a background persona for Divy. Either way is both terrifying.

Not to mention he is poorly overshadowed by her as well, so there's nothing bad about him really, but it's just him defending her.

Then we have Addy (AddyNoSketchpad) who used to be called ArtyEevee back in day until one day somewhat changed.

She used to be on Sketcher's United as well just before she deleted her account for some reason. Basically because I joined Sketcher's United as well..

She now has a Tumblr account not only because she wanted to be known there, but because she wants to "strengthen up Divy's triangle", let's call it.

I have no reason or evidence for it but for sure she has an account there; that's the only truth I can prove right now.

Next we have the homotwins: Maple (PhatCats) and Ivy (IvyTheKat).

We can start with Maple first technically, since she is more controversial.

Again like Addy, she has made accounts on various websites, excluding Tumblr. She is mostly active on Wattpad by the username of MapleFrostWahWah, and she has by now over 40 followers.. insane.

And her stories are targeted on preschoolers... in-fucking-sane.

And the fact that she gets 50 likes in EVERY story just proves how disgusting everyone is on Wattpad; they always support the immatures, but not the professionals.

I've read most of the fanfics. Not interesting. Absolutely read bait, fuck all.
And somehow, the putrid homo gets 40 followers. While my account got only 10.
Nevermind Tumblr being scummy, it's now Wattpad. This is why I moved to fanfiction.net.

Anyways, she was also on Discord as well with Divy and her other whiteknights. I tried making another account so she won't notice the difference and tried contacting her, but she unfortunately cut off when I tried.

Maple even made birthday artwork for Divy usually but has missed this year, or has secretly showed her on the Discord server they're usually in now.

That's all I have to say for Maple, now for her sister Ivy.

In my visual POV, Ivy feels like a beta version of Maple, but has a cliché for Zundamon. Zundamon is a UTAU voicebank who is best known for making contextless songs.

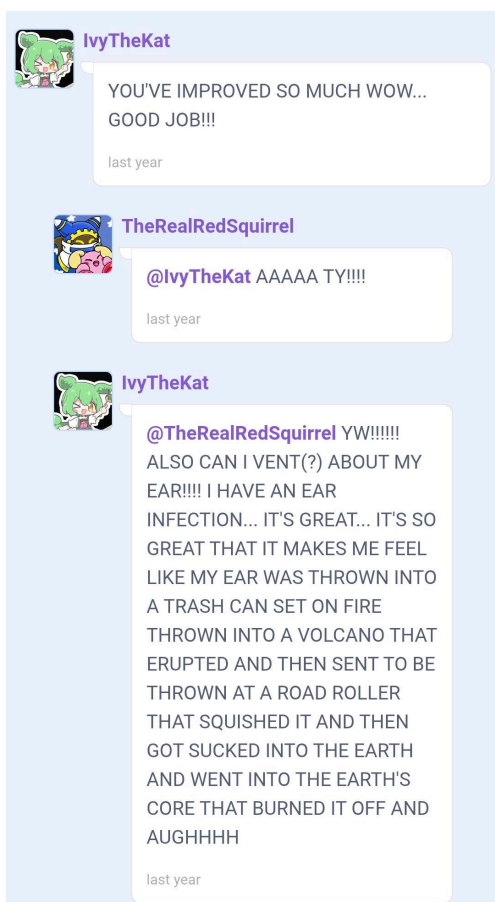

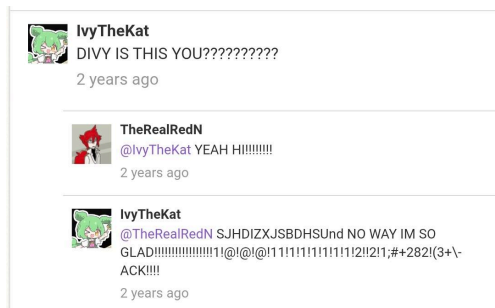

I don't know much about her, but all I could know is that she was practically made to rape someone in some song she covered. That's all I could think of.

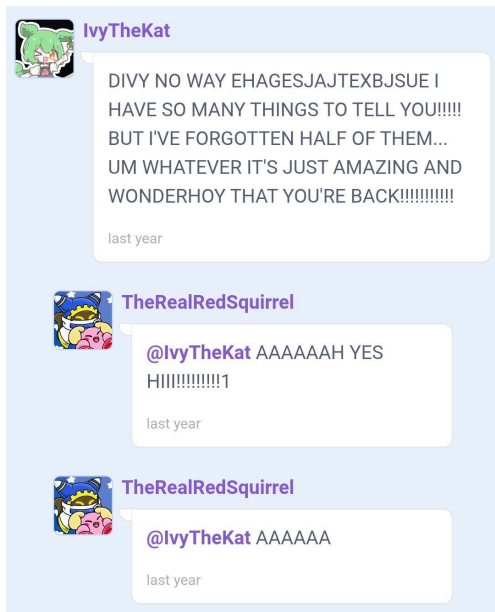

Anyways with Ivy herself, she is practically talented like Maple. She also has the same humor as her, but doesn't have any other websites to be other than Scratch.

And that reason for? No clue.

Either she has down syndrome, or is just being absolutely deluded.

And she is also a dying EAGLE. You would go and see for the looks of how this homo yells. I wonder if she's doing fine in the real world, I say...

Sighhhh... I forgot to mention she even does the “ !! “ thing. Fucking ten year old.

And imagine SCREAMING for saying that someone's art looks good. How fucking dramatic are you to act like that?!

Well.. now that's all the issues shown from Ivy. And if that's not much, reminder that's Divy's whiteknight.

Next we have Fara (xXPastelCatsXx).

Now for one, she's not that much of a hassle to go through, but still. Hear me out.

She is a BIG fan of emos. Mostly also known for being an Ingo, Emmet and N simp as well (I don't understand how anyone is simping on a green hair lmao).

Surprisingly back in June 2023, she quite changed at me when I was trying to be nice joining on an artspace with her and her other whiteknights. I just don't know what the fuck was on her mind and she didn't even apologize to me soon after.

She even defended Gemma for mentally abusing me on Discord and still acted like a 'friend' to me. Bitch, you're not cool. You're defending someone who you're not seeing deeply. She has Gamejolt, YouTube and so on for me to count on.

But I can tell you one thing I'm not afraid to tell: She has goddamn great art talent. See? She's a C tier in the list.

6 / 30 / 25

Then there's Grace (historicaloser), which her Scratch username explains mostly.

Practically heard that Grace is a Christian who is a Giovanni simp ever since I've known her. She is now a simp of real life people, which is horrifying if you ask me (she might be a shudders... Muslim as well).

Back in 2022 in my Scratch era with Grace, as when I was joining Gamejolt she then threw a fit at me and began putting me on the 'DNI' list for 'faking my death'.

Honestly, since when did I even do that?! Are you fucking jealous that you're a tiny person who had a boring niche to put it against my advantages?! Are you fucking bald or what?!

Thankfully, she didn't make a callout on me yet is CONTINUING to put me on the DNI list for God knows what for. Bitch, are you gonna hold your grudge for that long?! Give it up, you're a Muslim for crying out loud!!!

This bitch cannot give me a chance, honestly..

Whatever you do, DO NOT fall for the kindness of this user. She may have nice art, interesting cliché, but that doesn't excuse you to get to know her.

Like Gemma, she's like Ruby Franke inside except the fact that she's just a kid.

And a kid her age would NEVER treat anyone like this. You're named Grace for a REASON.

7 / 4 / 25

The previous stuff was updated today but I'm still going over this grudge right now.

Another fast fact here is that Grace has a Deviantart named 'ilexkun'. Just to remind you <3

Now that most of the grungy whiteknights I have called out here despite the fact that this is the callout for Divy, let's bring out the worst one out of all of them, which I've introduced already..

Gemma (Happy_Wings101)

As I've called her name incorrectly previously, I'll start calling her by her real name just in case I get misjudged.

So...for further ado, let's start.

As I said earlier, I used to be friends with Gemma back when we were both in Scratch in 2022. As a year later when I got banned, I moved to Deviantart and introduced her to it - and we used to communicate with each other until late November due to electronic exchanges at school.

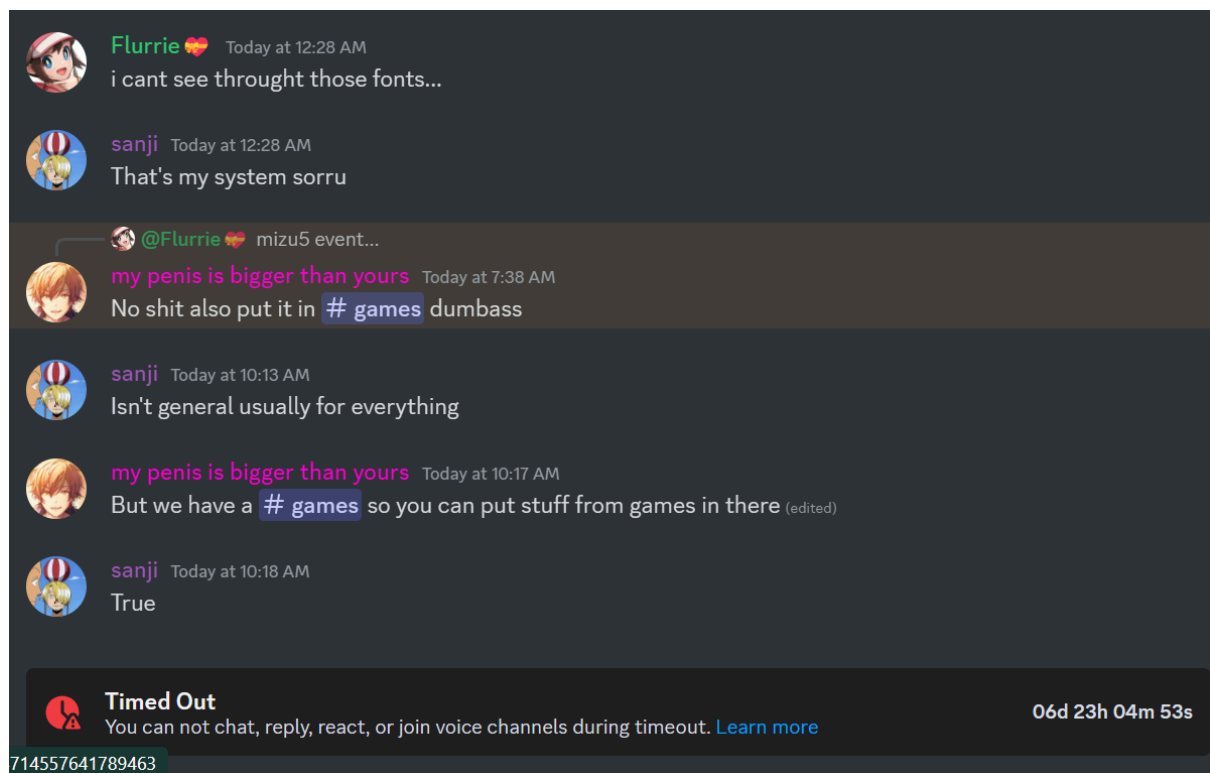

She returned back in January, and when I saw that she was introducing a Discord server on her Scratch page, I began joining.

...And this is where the drama begins.

Gemma began saying awful stuff to me like she's on marijuana recently (she might be irl..) and somehow Fara and Xavier (someone I forgot to mention are Divy's whiteknights) just stand there and do fuck all.

Now thankfully I have only one footage of Gemma mentally abusing me in her server saved on my laptop.

This was the footage of me announcing Mizu5 on her sever back in October, and yet Gemma had to outsmart me like she's rich.
Take a fucking look.

Reminder Gemma is the one with the captioned 'my penis is bigger than yours', if you're puzzled.

Laugh all you want, she's literally trying.

Sanji is Fara as well, by the way. And you see, as much as she still respects me as a friend, she just couldn't fucking care less.

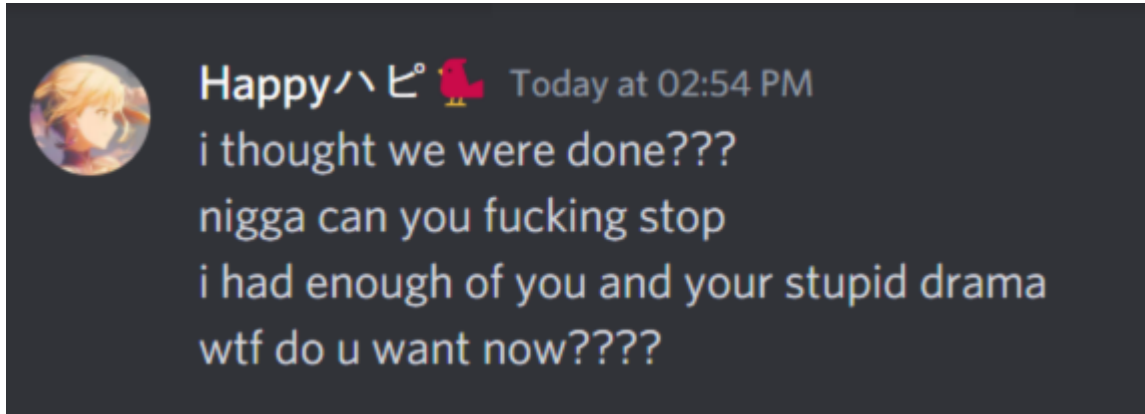

'Oh, my friend was called a dumbass but that's okay because the person who ruled this server is also my friend!!!!'

WHO'S THE DUMBASS NOW, BITCH?! YOU JUST STAND THERE AND FUCKING LET SOMEONE ABUSE ME?!

I have others in stock since I still have the old groupchat Gemma had on Discord (she hasn't removed me there for some reason).

7 / 15 / 25

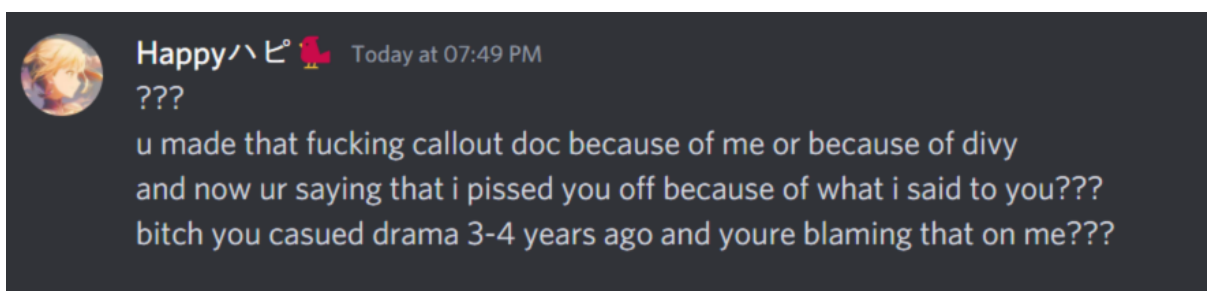

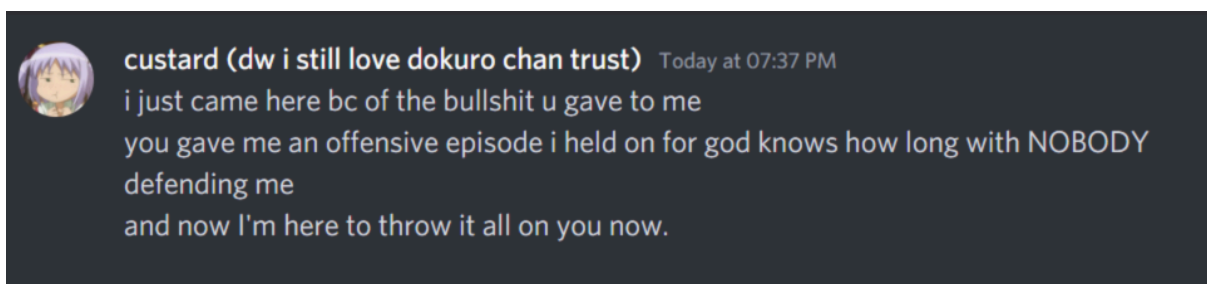

Great.

I've sent the callout to Grace on her Deviantart, knowing that she is inactive mostly there but probably got the message and somewhat sent it to Gemma possibly.

I knew Gemma's harsh and I wanted to talk to her again, but I don't remember (even if I think of it) that Gemma would out loud say racial slurs at my profile in DMs.

The rest of the conversation with Gemma is continued down below. Feel free to read all of this.

all i can remember is you jerking off to that type of anime you sick fuck

She knows well that I'm currently 17, meaning I can't be a pedophile.

And who fucking gave you the idea of asking me if I jerk off at that type of stuff?! What, do you usually do that in your sleep or something?!

Just because I love Bokuatsu Tenshi Dokuro Chan does not mean I support Pedophilia; I love the anime because it was insane anime comedy with weird contextless stuff, that's why I love it. And that also implies to normal people who love abnormal stuff as well.

7 / 18 / 25

One more thing I forgot to bring up about Gemma is that she's also a DTI fan now.

...And that wraps it all up for her (she'll continue to do this stuff on me and if so, I'll next time make an individual callout against her).

NOW continuing on Divy like I'm supposed to..

I wish I can bring up the screenshots to show proof or more idiocy but since I'm at school for now I just can't at the meantime. So for now take it as a grain of salt.

7 / 21 / 25

I'm at home thankfully now.. So I can screenshot more of this goose's behavior.

She was lately active since the 5th of July and made this retarded list. (Please forgive me that the image is incredibly huge)

today is a very special day for me

3 years of kirby brainrot

3 years of magolor brainrot too he may not be my main blorbo anymore, but he still lives on in my heart forever. i'll never forget him <3 (~~get i—squirrel is found dead~~) and 3 years of a very special best-friendship that i miss dearly that friendship is the reason why i love kirby among some other things so much so, friend, if you're seeing this by chance, i hope you know that i miss you dearly, don't hold anything against you, and will always hold the special memories we made together in my heart forever, no matter what happens those memories we made together are enough to last a lifetime for me, and i wouldn't wish those days away for the world

i hope you're having fun with whatever new or old friends you've made out there, having fun with your awesome hyperfixations i loved hearing you yap about

i still think of you whenever i see those anywhere i hope we meet again one day and can become friends once more, and i hope you know those years we spent together meant the world to me i love you, man.

Magolor isn't dead, you fucking dumbass. If you want him revived, post content of him in your profile page and don't act so stupid; you're NOT autistic, you're 16, middle-year high schooler, born in San Francisco - USA, GROW UP.

I've never seen ANYONE try so hard to be autistic in my life.

And I know I'm not a person who is usually a judger on someone's usernames, but who even has the audacity to call themselves by an animal? It's honestly the stupidest types of nicknames I've encountered by now and that kind of shows animal discrimination (and racism).

If you don't know what I mean, let me recap about this: Divy also calls herself Squirrel.

And what do Squirrels usually get in the wild? Rabies.

And however, she continues doing this stupid behavior in a problematic website which I would not bother staying on. She barely uses Scratch as well, but at times makes contact on there even knowing she's fucking 16.

A little anger-looser here: if I see that Divy loses any of her friends, I'd so pull this on her:

I've been into a little oopsy today, but I have time for this.

For a surprise, Maple was now aware of this document which was confirmed on her Wattpad page / description.

I'm currently at school and Deviantart / Wattpad is blocked. But I have some slight memory of what her description looked like so don't mind me going through this nonsense.

"My main stuff is below. This is for a certain someone I need to read so please ignore this..."

Brenda, get off my page. I know this won't stop but I can't just sit here and let you suffer me and my friends from this"

Okay, first for foremost as I said this. As much as I don't use Wattpad anymore, you know that I have to inspect your account and scrape it on this document due to you being a whiteknight for Divy and everyone else.

It may sound really unjustified, but you know what my actions were now.

"Guess what? I saw your callout doc and I'm just disgusted that you compared your art to my friend's and used it."

Used it? It wasn't used, it was traced / copied. And I didn't do that in the first place. Using, tracing and copying art are three different things.

If I can have the guts to say this: your art and the way you draw characters look like they're drunk. I've seen them.

"It has been THREE years since you've been giving us grudge!"

Alright, alright.. I admit. I did sort of give you some sort of bullshit back in Scratch of 2022-2023, but I was 14-15 back then; I was stupid and overreactive and it's normal for teenagers to react like that at an age range like this.

Alternatively, Divy did continue to grind my gears and acted stupid on Tumblr (she hasn't changed as I've saw her back in early 2022, the rot was still there).

So basically, back then you were not just procrastinative, but also showing lack of support and sympathy when I was trying to be communicative yet seemingly outrageous in a rightful manner. I'm pretty sure many of us experienced that.

"I blocked you for a reason because I've had enough of your drama around us, and stop trying to make me and everyone else look bad."

As I apologize to say this; I make people the way I want them to be, and it's half my speciality. And I don't even remember you blocking me even on the current website you have (I still have access to your profile while I was on my old-ass Wattpad account).

Also, Maple, my sweetie until now.. I've been through the same bullshit on Deviantart but I at least blocked the person who did that shit on me and not BOTHER about telling them off on my bio; I continued doing my thing while you just wasted ten minutes typing this nonsense on your Wattpad bio.

At this point, I really can't tell if you're a beginner on Wattpad or not.

"Also, why did you begin adding stuff about how my sister says? Why does the '??' or '!!' bother you? So what if she says that?"

Fuck. Another one bites the dust for the smartest Oscar award.

As I admit that I say the same shit Ivy does, at least I don't put in caps or make me sound like I'm screaming when there's no need for it; or at least, I do that when I'm actually elated or petrified or just straight fucked up like I am.

I don't know what made me ticked about Ivy's online accent, maybe it's the imagined tone I considered her to have, but...

Who cares anyways? I was a pissed off rodent when I mentioned that shit. Moving on.

"You just can't stop leaving us alone and I'm now noticing that even without getting connected to us, you're still not individually leaving us be."

...And that never wouldn't have happened if your princess hasn't stolen two parts of my artwork and sent it on Tumblr.

"And I know that this isn't the first time you committed art thief because you've stole mine before."

As I've said before, I haven't stolen anyone's art. I was literally notified about Divy's Tumblr since 2023 and I kept inspecting. And since WHEN, and I mean... WHEN did I even steal a part of your art?!

This clearly had nothing to do with you really, but you're now speaking up. Part of the reason why I'm bringing this up now.

And one more thing that I forgot that would probably change the entire reaction of this: People steal art all of the time. It's basically a normal thing people do and they mostly get away with it. You're just acting like I've invented something beyond humanity. Though I mostly trace just to give me more experience to draw, so you're clearly lost in the way you're speaking.

"We don't want to get through your bullshit or even deal with this anymore, it's been three years. Leave us alone."

Then don't bother typing the entire essay on your bio then and I wouldn't have added it on this callout in the first place.

And that was all of the things I can remember from Maple's bio message about me. At first, it was a combination between a moment of silence and a whole audience laughing in my mind when I first saw the bio.

"Well that person might be right, you look like you've kinda stole Divy's art"

"Bro you sound like you're a liar"

"You sound like you're defending yourself"

That's because I am..? Look, what do you expect from a 17 year old autistic girl to at times have academic vocabulary and defensive self-awareness??
I "sound" like a liar- THIS IS A TEXT.

Hate me all you want - all of the evidences are shown right HERE in this document.
I've made this callout not just for Divy or anyone else, but to share on the websites I use as well and it's also my responsibility to check if Divy or her whiteknights are going to other websites.

Decided to inspect Divy's Tumblr again for this peaceful Saturday.

Just to remind you if the screenshot I'm adding on this update of the document looked weird, I accidentally liked one of Divy's posts on the Tumblr app and thankfully blocked her after I made the mistake... for now, that is.

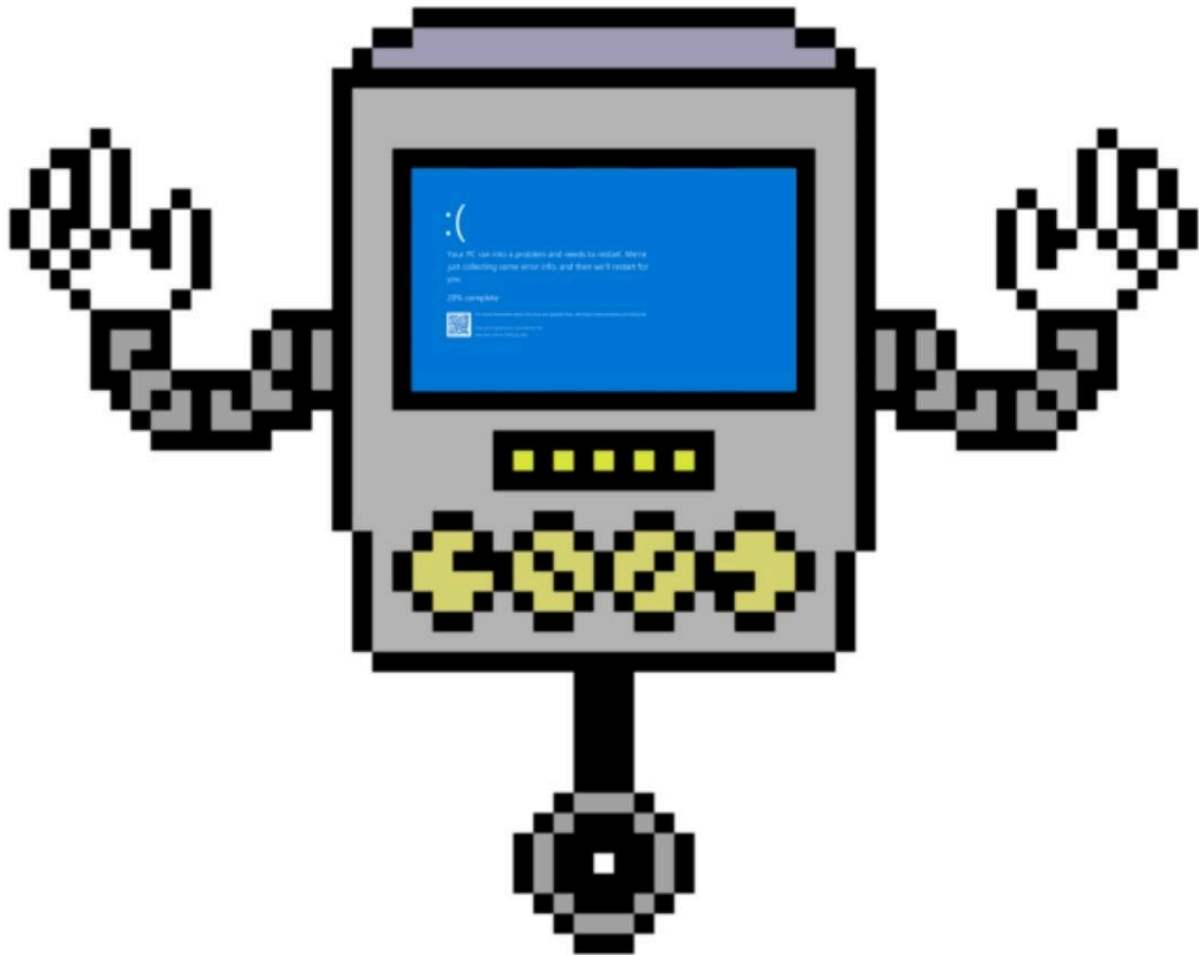

There's a web-browsing version of Tumblr called Tumlook which I'm now using until I can inspect back on Tumblr to see what she's up to.

She now drew an Undertale television character with a blue screen shown on the face.

hey guys why did mettaton bluescreen when i got all the quiz answers wrong :/

#squirrel's creations #undertale #mettaton

#utdr

#this was from an old roleplayish thing me and some irls did

#the context was that mettaton came back from the human internet and started having like a robot seizure from it or smth it was rly funny

...Maybe that thing is not a television, yet a Gameboy with robotic arms, machine meters and an unicycle leg.

God, first Deltarune now Undertale...Jesus.

And that's basically not all.

This wasn't really controversial considering I didn't make a blackish purple OC with rainbow details, but just thought that this somewhat gives out confronting and redeemable qualities.

mistilteinn-magolor

introducing...

3dyss!! she's my self-insert darkner oc based on my own 3ds for... definitely not selfshipping purposes nope no sir!!

she's from the cyber world and dating a certain spoilery character from the end of chapter 3 i may be cringe but i am free

Here are some other images of 3dyss (basically the name of the OC if you can't read far - somewhat...okay name for a gay OC..?).

...She kind of looks like a gay robot but I'm not entirely sure what fandom she is directly at besides from... shudders Floea...

Here's an uncolored version of her which is actually better because it excluded LGBTQ+ (I'm not homophobic btw, it's the way Divy shaded the coloring).

extra drawing with chapter 3 spoilers under the cut :3

Oh. It's a Deltarune OC.

As much as I think Deltarune's for the crazy people, I'll just leave the gay OC be for now.

Wait! I didn't read clearly at the first screenshot and noticed by now that Divy admitted that 3dyss is basically her Deltarune persona (I'm assuming self-insert means self persona).

And what am I surprised for? She used OC x Canon again.

Condolences if you don't get it which I probably forgotten at the beginning of the callout: Divy shipped Floea with Magolor.

“But you ship your persona with Lack-Two!!!”

True. But at least I don't make my OC larger than a canon character which has the size of a FOOTBALL. And I'm not talking about 3dyss with the Roaring Knight, at least her OC is small because that's what women are supposed to look like compared to men.

...Other than Floea with her football rag-themed boyfriend that has levitating gloves.

And I might've mistaken my OC's as my current age, which is meant to be the same age as Lack-Two's. And which I'm going to make a reminder journal about it soon on Deviantart.

...For now, this is about Divy. First she made a copycat shlong OC and now a LGBTQ+ OC. Crazy.

7 / 28 / 25

Scratch is officially blocked on my laptop at school apparently. But that doesn't stop me from updating this callout daily.

I forgot to mention on Divy's other accounts on Scratch back in 2023, Grace told her about me 'shitting on them'.

Edit: I've checked, Scratch is no longer blocked.
Here is the evidence.

If you're asking why am I bringing this up considering the dates these were made.. The birdshit is still there and I'm currently under the storm. Take it as a grain of salt and just enjoy reading.

Metroid even supported Divy and referred to her as 'the savior aka God of Scratch' despite her not being religious. That line now makes me want to puke.

As an autistic to ADMIT that I ragebaited in Metroid's profile despite also being an ableist for it and anywhere else, I take it entirely back.
Ableism isn't really a crime anymore.

I don't know if Addy still defends me or not, who knows?

And.. what a surprise. Fara joined in the conversation.

xXPastelCatsXx

@TheRealRedSquirrel She's been weird in the past for... certain magmas. It led to her first ban, and that ban was because of me. It was my fault and I ended up getting banned when she did. I'm not going to go over it due to topics like: $3Xv4l things (c- word and p- word mainly) on a friends drawing of a d34d friend, to literal slurs that led to all this chaos, and more. I'm sure you know about this. But in other magmas she was plain rude for attention. I would pay attention to someone else and she would go @TheRealRedSquirrel Saying stuff like "oh hi faras new girlfrieend" or say stuff like "your family problems are totally worse than my bans and all the work I've shared that has been lost" In Ez's artspace (aka Ghouse11) she would start making folders that insulted Ez because she was a good artist and as Brenda is, she wanted attention. There were 2 funny folders that weren't insults. Like "Come here for a 20 dallion dollars" or this one folder about N but iforgor. But it straight up wasn't okay. We banned her.

2 years ago

Some of the other things I did were actually hilarious and you were just oversensitive about it.

I understand you were a Dallon fan back then, but wouldn't you laugh at that type of 'dallion dollars' joke other than it's slightly offensive?

And you're falsely accusing me of committing necrophilia on someone's DEAD friend?! You were the one who was oversensitive over a JOKE, the fuck's wrong with you?! However, the family jokes were kind of funny as well despite how crazy I was back then, but there's no excuse to just spit that out of nowhere like it's a crime.

And despite that Fara is THREE years younger than me... I'm not surprised at all for the stupidity she's bringing up.

xXPastelCatsXx

@TheRealRedSquirrel I have all this info because she's been around talking to me for a long time. She was kinda clingy to us, because yknow happy was her bestie and stuff. You do realize that he is canonically AN ADULT!!

Or if I'm dumb to not check his actual age, he certainly looks like an adult.

And of course Maple 10%-ingly got into this shit as well back then.

Despite me also doing 'whatever this is' on Gamejolt back when I was 14, some poor person asked what the website was.

"Oh my gosh...yeah I'm so not gonna talk to her again when she comes back on my profile.."

Good. So that you would learn BEFORE you steal shit from ME.

And this was BEFORE you made a Tumblr account..

missing cavaliershipping and corruptedshipping atm

#corruptedshipping #trainer whitwo #trainer blake

#pokemon adventures #pokemon special #eyestrain

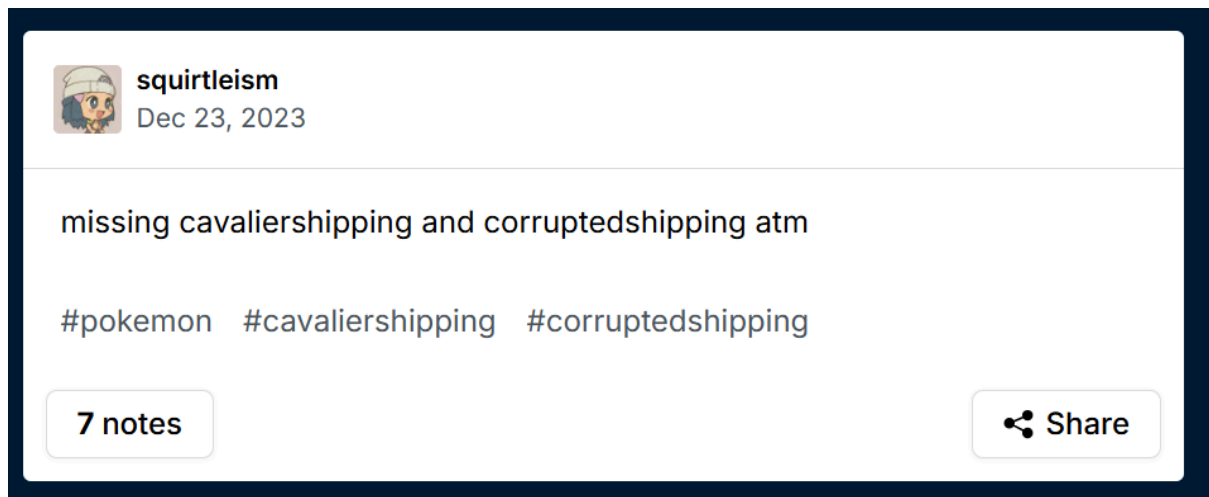

Posted this disgusting shit two days ago just to scare me, what a way to start August early. Since I knew Divy would most likely be a fan of Whi-Two yet a hater of Corruptedshipping (like me, nobody asked, yeah..).

..This left me speechless as shit. Even words can't basically describe any of this CONSIDERING I've expected less from Divy.

This even led me to a question: how does Divy's whiteknights still support her even for this?

Edit: I've now checked her page again this morning, the post was now removed.

Edit 2.0: Oh my fucking days, I just researched Corruptedshipping content on Tumblr and basically found that Divy has stolen somebody's status update description as sneaky evidence. Jesus.

8 / 3 / 25

I'd like to bring up more information but first things first, I would love to thank anyone on Deviantart for sharing this to everyone else. Even if Divy isn't a Deviantart user YET, it's just great to see people aware of what she's done.

Before the 3dyss OC she introduced, she made a Sonic Riders meme about being biromantic and blaming it on another fandom.

mistilteinn-magolor

deltarune turned me bi chat!!

Yes, the post was a MONTH ago. But somebody just had to point out the fact she is biromantic and making memes out of it.

And I know this isn't as bad as the biromantic situation but...

I think I lost the post, but Divy admitted she was also 'asexual' in an old post.

...That would explain the Corruptedshipping porn above this current update.

Back then, Divy also reblogs almost every pointless thing on Tumblr such as 'repost if you hate spams' or 'repost if you are a minor'.

Maybe the website I'm mostly active on deserves an apology for the retardation.

"But that's not Divy's fault!"

I'm not saying it is, but Tumblr is sort of the reason Divy is progressively getting worse.

..Would not say for Scratch itself as well as she was the one who invented the "Shiwitl".

8 / 5 / 25

Speaking of the Shiwitl, since everybody would be confused about it...

The Shiwitl - as said, invented by Divy - was known as a type of locket shown from the Pokemon manga resembling N's inner spirit. The name of it was mostly targeted to Whi-Two and the 'Shi' would probably mean her personality (Whi-Two is always a shy character in the franchise).

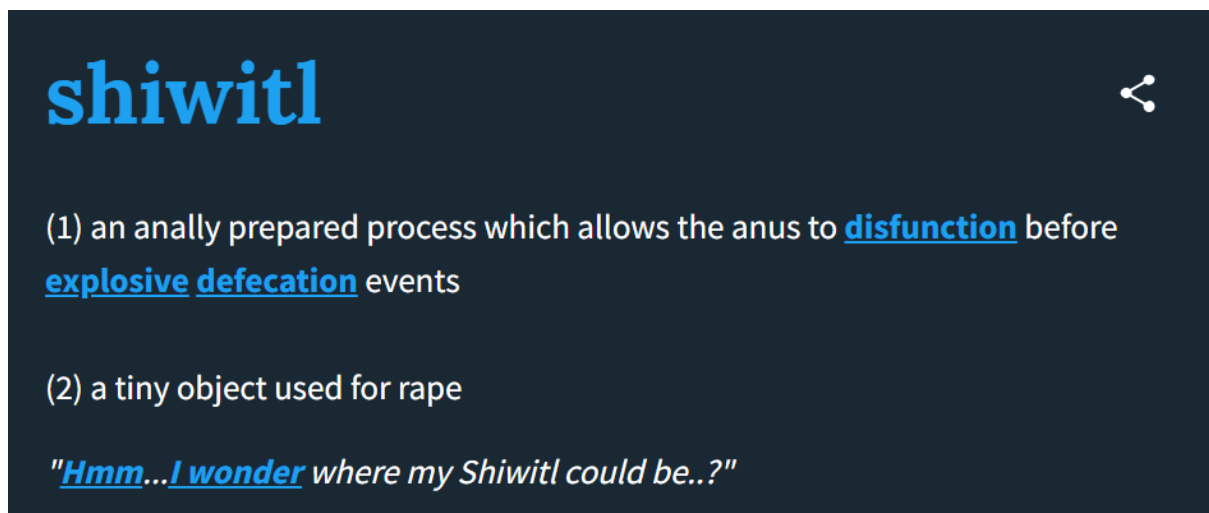

As there was a story to this, which I would explain.

The Shiwitl starts with Whi-Two losing her Shiwitl in the first place and tries to find it everywhere. There were only two parts to it (there was also a third part to it but it was a rickroll) and it is currently discontinued, thank god.

And as I remember Muslims keeping a locket to themselves, I can tell Whi-Two would be one of them instead she doesn't have a head-cover.

Honestly, it's terrifying for her to be like one of those people..

...And as I researched 'Shiwitl' on Google, it apparently HAS an actual definition on another website I found.

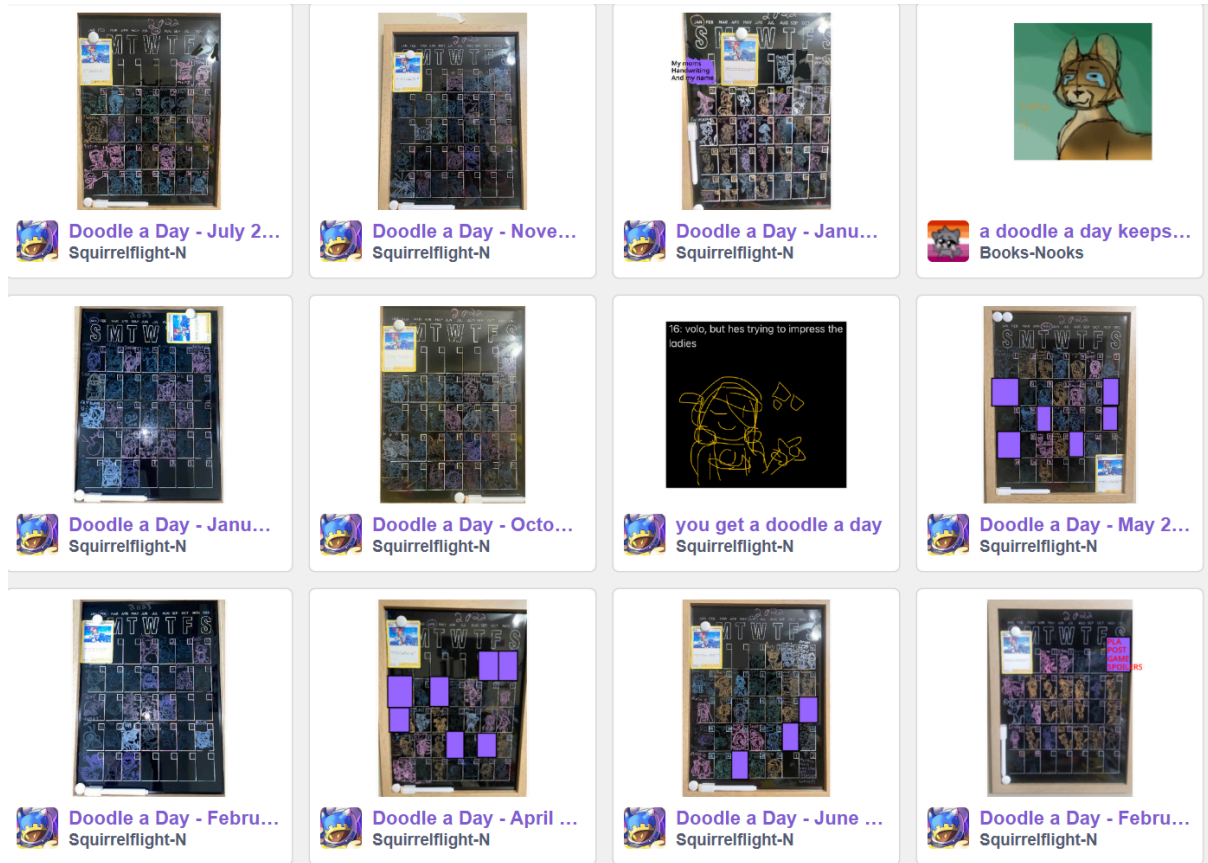

As this definition was created by someone who was a Corruptedshipper and makes fanfictions of them (Leafpuff is the user), I just couldn't be more surprised.

8 / 7 / 25

This is a special day for me somehow, but I managed to find the source of Divy's art on Scratch again.

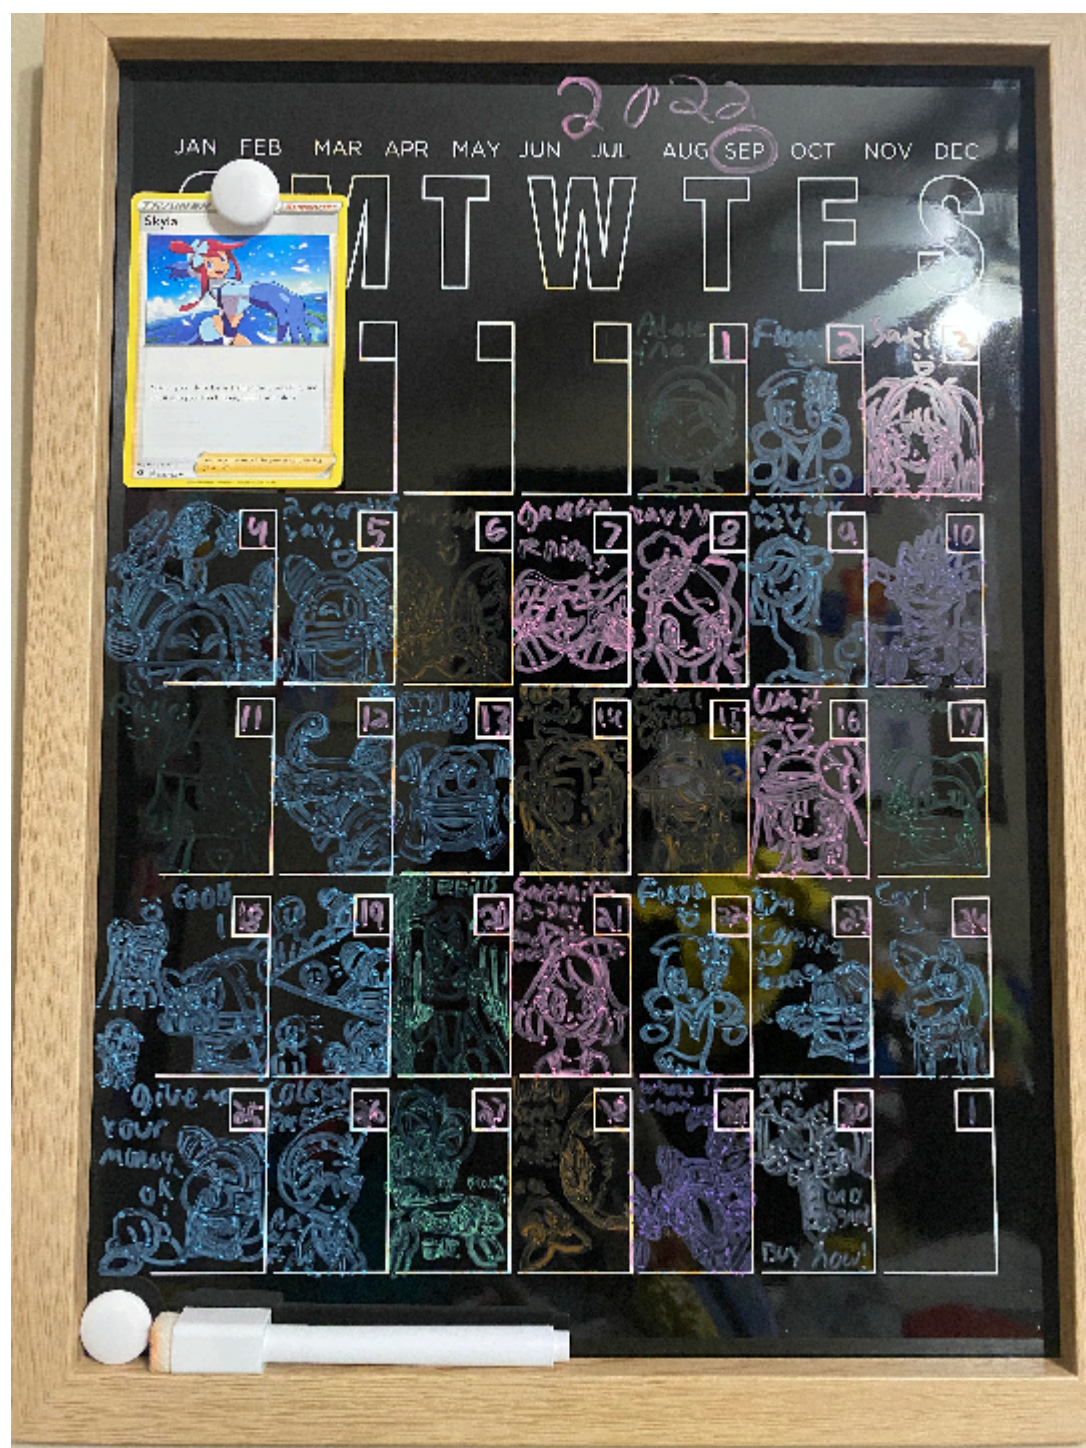

Apparently back in those days, she would make a drawing challenge to herself called 'Doodle A Day' which shows small as fuck spaghetti or poor attempts of party spraying shown on every calender chart month by month.

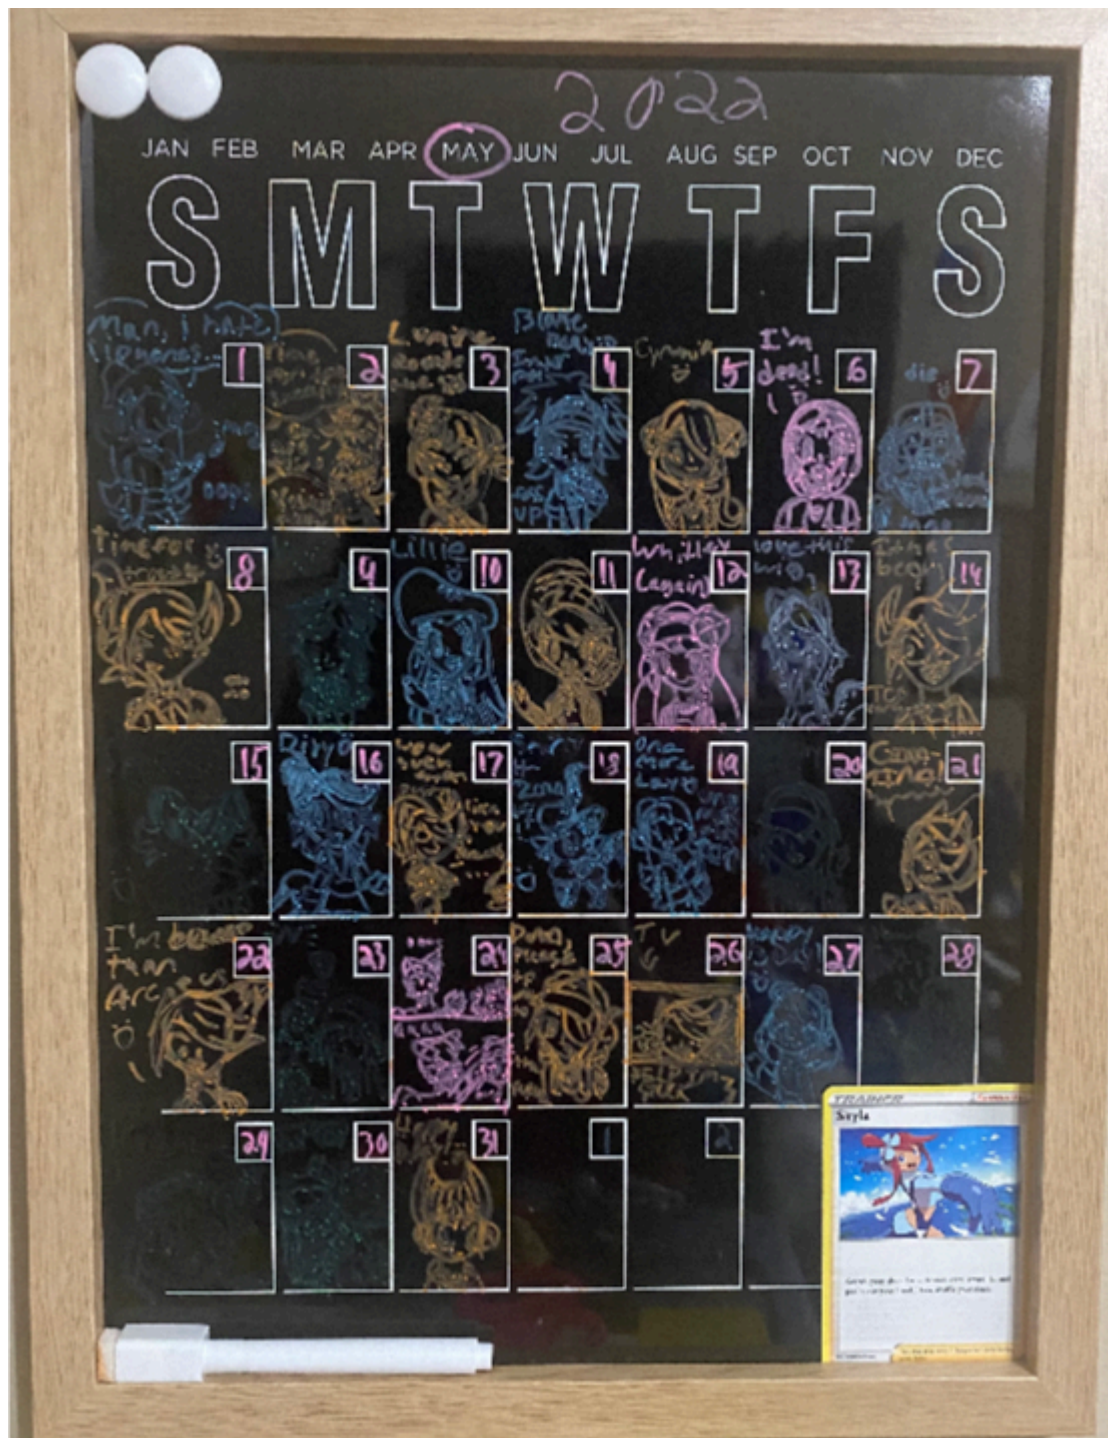

Edit: I actually made this on the 6th but had no time. By accident, I now changed the date just to be sincere.

If that's not enough, I don't have access to better quality / going into the project for clear evidence, so just take it with a grain of salt.

Edit: I now have access but it's only on my phone.

8 / 11 / 25

As I've said on my Deviantart page about my current condition, I'll try and take it simple like baby steps this time.

As I was going through Divy's Scratch page, apparently she has a 'sister' on there by the name of SylveonGirl_12345, or just Sylv for short.

Quick context: Sylv was my very first online friend before Gemma since I joined Scratch. I wouldn't have a clue if Divy is 'biologically' a sister to her, nor I wouldn't have a clue if they actually met in real life.

Not that I'm trying to make Sylv involved in this - which I am, but there was this one comment on her old Scratch group which really recoiled me a little. I couldn't find source, but there was someone commenting to encourage Sylv to commit a feet fetish. I could say specifically what it means, but I just couldn't hurt myself for it.

And there's footage of her with Gemma talking about Legends Z-A...sigh (Justice for Unova)

SylveonGirl_12345

Another part of Divy's old friends whom I'm going to introduce today. It's been long since I've updated this.

Allow me to introduce...

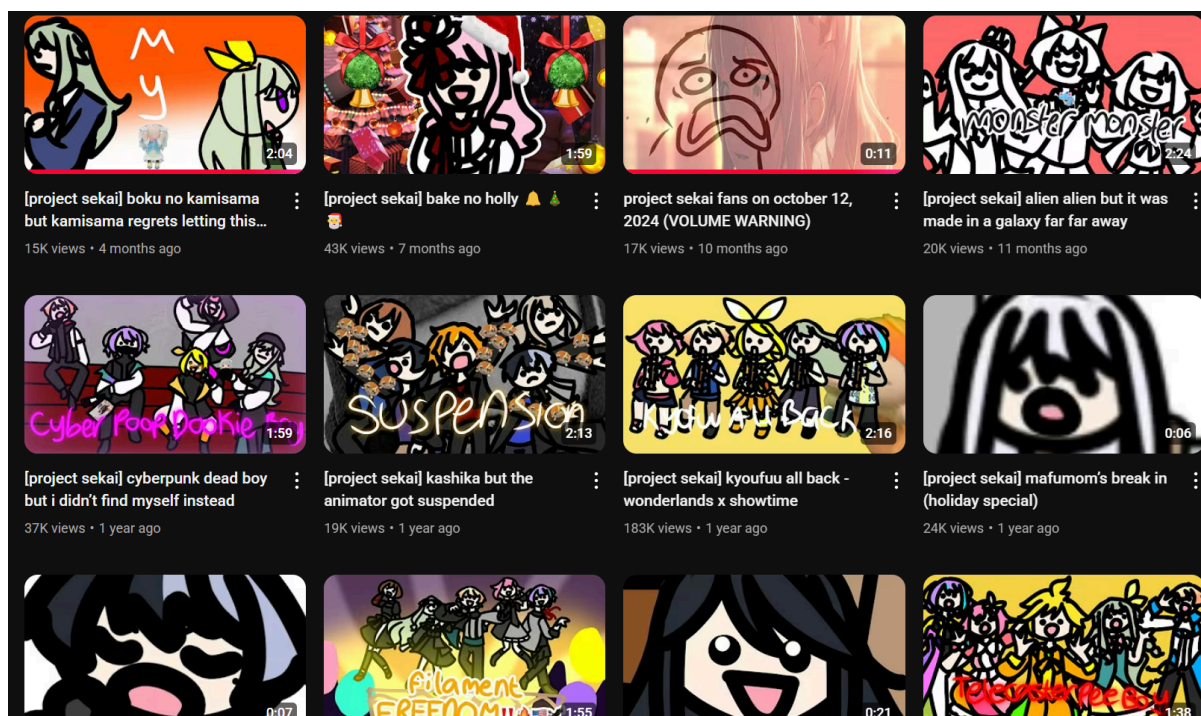

Also known as 'salmon-vanilla' on YouTube. If you're a Project Sekai player and usually on YouTube watching content of something Project Sekai related, you're probably aware of them.

Azura has a great talent of drawing characters in preschool design / Asian food merchandise.

At first, I didn't know Azura was salmon-vanilla in the first place when I saw her confirming that it was her YouTube account. I also found her art unrecognisable even when she uses the characters from Project Sekai into stick figures for attention.

Here's an example:

And it makes me disappointed that people defend the retardation of any of these videos.

Edit: I've just looked at the second video on top, who the fuck would make a Christmas parody of a trans-feminine character who just had trauma from someone inadvertently telling their friend about their real gender and even the song ABOUT SOMEONE GOING THROUGH A PANIC ATTACK AND ENDING THEIR LIVES?! It makes me sick that people defend this type of shit..

As twice as shocking that Divy was friends with this person, I'm just relieved that Azura didn't mention her in any of her Youtube posts.

If you don't know Azura's current subscriber count, she has currently 36.4k subscribers.

Go subscribe to her channel if you want... cancer with cringery, that's all I'm saying.

Since her recent video was about 4 months ago yet she's continuing to post stupid shit in the community posts, I'm just hoping one day she'll just improve and move away from this stuff.

Anywho, I've only just now found this out since Gemma talked to someone on her Scratch page that she doesn't want to post anymore content because she might be aware of this.

As much as this would hurt to say for them, Divy started a TREND by her whiteknights now taking screenshots that they got a Rosa alt.

HOW!?

by Happy_Wings101

Apparently Maple did the same thing, but was removed for some reason.

..There were more as well, but this can be perfect for examples.

And since if you forgot why I'm doing this, it's not just for my post-recovery, but to remind you that Divy previously posted PORN of her on her Tumblr page before it got removed. And again, a reason and an excuse are two different things.

It's nearly the end of Winter (Summer in NH)... and the drama goes on.

i kinda forgot to check here whoopsies but im a demigirl now!! i use she/it :3c about 14 hours ago

Divy now admits herself as a demigirl - meaning she confirms herself to be a girl but not in a complete manner. She even uses pronouns with 'she/it'.

It may be a self-centered situation, but bare me out on this one: people with the 'it' pronouns are most likely delusional; you can't have 'it' pronouns if you're a human being, nor you would have the audacity to move if you were born an object (for example, a table).

I may be a coward as I consider, but I see demi-people as really fucked up freaks.

9 / 2 / 25

New month, new start.

Since it was two months when Divy followed her alt account, let's take a little look more on Grace.

Also forgot that she also names herself as 'atlas', but I guess it's pointless for now since I keep mentioning people's names.

As you can see from the screenshot above, Grace is now known for making shitposts and drawing art casually. I remember one time she also drew fanart of Lack-Two which I adore back in 2022 (cough cough, ignore this, cough).

And hey look this is crazy, she also joined the Autism Acceptance Studio even after she put me in her DNI.

Grace also puts ableists in her DNI list as well. Narcissist, am I right?

I think I talked a little too much for Grace now. Moving onto the main course.

It's about time I discuss further about the 'stealing art' situation I previously mentioned. Divy retraced the artwork if not once, but twice.

Marking the projects as 'redraw' at the first and third project but not the second project? Talk about an art snitch..

If you're confused by the remixing in these screenshots, I'm with you here. Since remixes exist in Scratch for copying other's projects, then that's no excuse to just mark these as redraws for every single one of them instead they're all traced.

"But Divy might be doing this because of drawing practice!" ...Does it look like I fucking care? You need to grant consent for that shit. Unless you do the demonstration offline, I don't mind that.

I'm currently under the weather and this has been going on in the dust.

Edit: This has been going on for now, but since I'm at school I have full potential to continue on this.

Remember that Divy admitted she is officially a demigirl now? Someone inadvertently went in and acted like a fan.

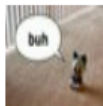

Didn't know Divy had fans.

And no, she didn't "evolve". This is an example of an indirect cause of neurocognitive disorder.

And I know this is annoying, but here's more information that Divy has in her Scratch projects.

This time it's about her getting muted from commenting.

Just to remind you some of these screenshots are really hard to read so I apologize if you can't; I'll do the typing.

The amount of muting she has had over the time just proves how problematic she is to the Scratch Team.

And people on Deviantart say I fuck up the DA staff...

Even as insane as the durations she has while getting muted, she doesn't get banned for any of this since she did on her old one. Even the one with the 'eating feces' gets defended somehow?

There was even a screenshot of Divy getting muted from her old account but however Mason has the proof of it on his project (yes, he has access to her old account. Don't ask why).

If you're concerned about the various profile pictures on each screenshot, this was about back in 2022 when Divy was more trendy back then.

“But that’s all in the past!” Legends say that history sometimes can’t be forbidden in the dark, no matter how old it is.

Happy Birthday Whi-Two! But what else is there...?

Oh yeah! Forgot to mention about the Whitley Army that Maple made once ago. It was recently updated for God knows (March 2022).

(Sorry for the terrible space the image incoming has)

Whitley Army

Whitley Army

That is all

I know that these are (probably) not permanent pfps but pfft who cares

Once a Whitley, always a Whitley

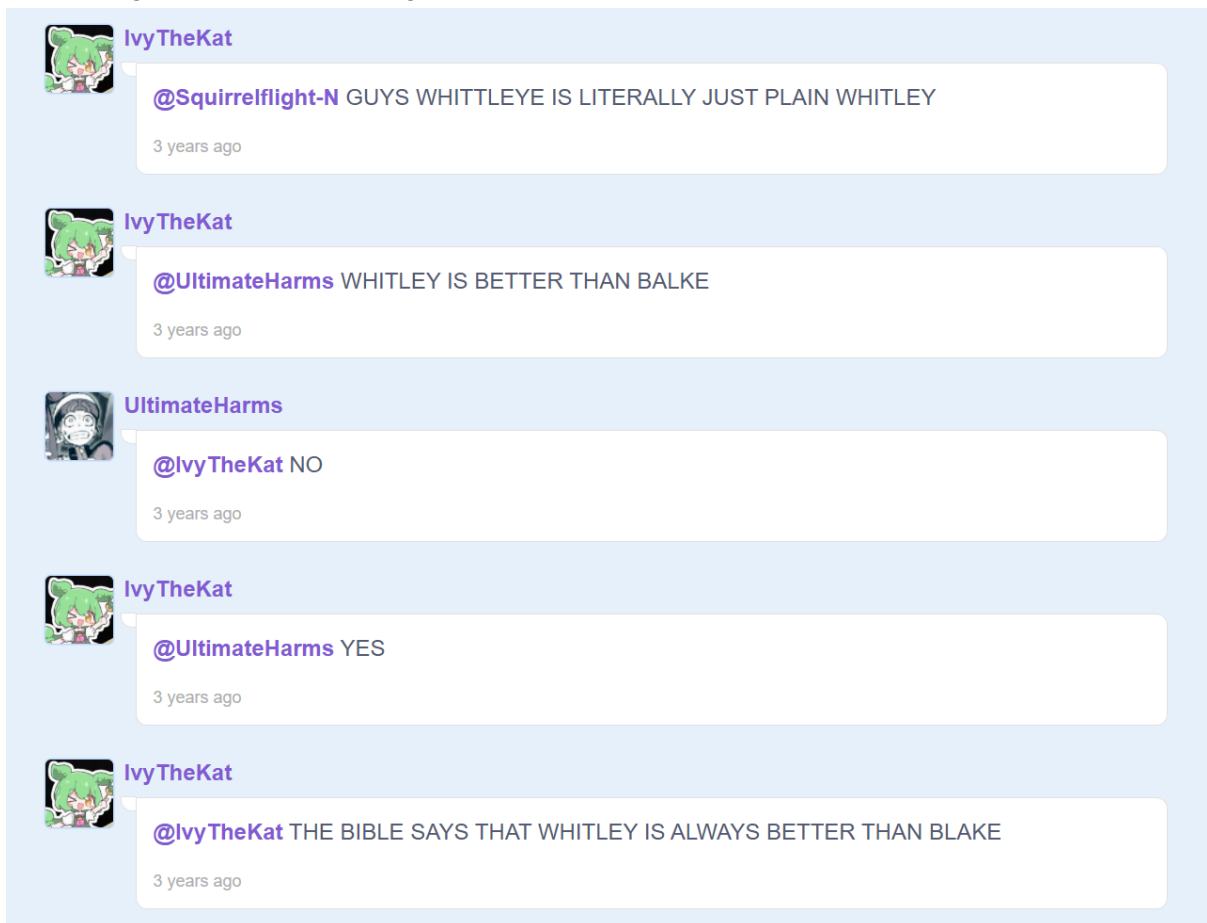

@Whi-two

As much as this cult is still inactive, let's just hope for the best that no one in that army is celebrating her birthday this time; it's getting a little too... controversial.

But rest assured, let's go through with it, shall we?

Like I said, Maple runs the Whitley Army due to her being a kin for her which she actually never will be and neither with Divy (no matter how much her "persona" looks like her..) or anyone else there. Besides being fans and treating this poor goose like Allah...

It's been three years since this happened and it's just playful but oh my god? Back then Ivy was calling me out for assuming Lack-Two is better than her.

..Did we read the same bible or did you spill something on it?

10 / 2 / 25

The best month arrives, and it's sad for me to continue on this.

Message for Divy's whiteknights

Message for Divy's friends / whiteknights.

Hello. As I've said in some update, I won't threaten anyone who is anonymously viewing this response unless they're whiteknights of Divy. If you however feel offended reading, then please ignore and move on from it...UNLESS you're her whiteknights, like I said. To recap: This is a message to Divy's friends / supporters / fans / whiteknights. This is me expressing how I feel towards them, how they treated me, and how this entire situation impacted me.

Colour representations:

Blue - Gemma

Blood Red - Fara

Dark Teal - Ivy

Yellowish-brown - Grace

(Excluding others because they're the only four I had to deal with)

Or however, if anybody is colourblind, just read anyway and ignore the colour representatives.

For Ivy...

Now since I read about Maple's message for me on her Wattpad page, I know how you would react.

"Just leave us alone! I know what you did!" or "Why are you doing this?!"...

...For instance, since my autism keeps blinging for me to do this which is good, I just had to do what I have to do and what has been bothering me; you knew I had to do this.

And don't even take it personal when I judged the way you talk online.. that's the only thing I take back from you, so be thankful.

And since you're not really Gemma's friend, you just went on Divy's side and act like she is a celebrity, which she isn't; she can't be a celebrity if she's a Kirby fan.

Overall, since you're not mostly the reason for Divy and this callout, I wish you the mildest life ahead of you.

For Fara...

Do you now notice or even realize what you've done? As a younger friend I once had, a mad Battle Subway fan, anything...

You just let Gemma abuse me on her Discord server without helping! You just defend her for the bullshit she does, and yet you make yourself look like a sociopath like you're happy somebody's getting mentally destroyed!!

And what the fuck was with you and that false accusation of me committing necrophilia on somebody's dead friend?! Look, I apologize for that loss of yours, but what did I even have to do with that?! I never got a chance to know these poor bastards!

As somebody who's in their first early decade, I can't be more surprised.

And I know this seems too far, but you deserve what you've gotten if you're not taking action. I don't care if you're younger than me, responsibility exists for a fucking reason.

Show respect and royalty to your seniors, for fuck's sake.

For Grace...

Please calm down. This callout is only 35% from you. However, I mentioned you in this message because you were the first person to give me negativity from social media.

You put up a DNI against me for being problematic on another website. I know that's reasonable, but you could've at least ASKED me if I was okay instead of immediately doing so. Or in fact, some asshole would be lazy and just do 'that' instead.

"But not everyone does that!!" Well, look. If you join social media and make friends there, you got to give a shit about you and your friend's awareness and wellbeing.

Overall, everything you say just threatens me; this was the same for Ivy except she was better. You calling me 'bestie' when you cut ties with me is just over the line, and that's worse than crossing it.

"You did the same with Maple!!" ...That's because it was necessary. Bestie is more offensive than sweetie. To me, that is. And hate me if you think I'm this sensitive, okay? Blame it on Fara for being oversensitive over jokes I did to her; they weren't that bad.

...Despite everything, like with Ivy, do better please.

For Gemma...

Welp. How do I start?

You were once a very nice friend of mine whom I trusted for until now. Even when I tried talking to you and after you exchanged devices in real life, I still did.
But no, you decided to throw a piece of gum in my hair later on; deciding to spit out rude shit on me when I was being communicative like I'm supposed to.

And if you're this disgusted or fucked up that I'm making this callout for you and mostly Divy, then this shit wouldn't have happened if you didn't try to ruin or mentally wreck my ass for nothing.

And you treat Divy like Allah, that was the final straw.

"Bitch, you were being immature" ...So what if I was? I've been dealing with dickheads at my school and my other problems in real life.. knowing that I hate immaturity, you know I do that because I wanted to still be a happy friend for you.

"You caused drama on us!" ...We all do that online, it's not a crime anymore. And the drama I caused wasn't that destructive to any of you, so I don't understand why you grudged at me sooner on.

And let's not forget the July 15th incident marked on this callout...
I was shocked when you called me something that wasn't necessary.
You bullying me for my current obsessions was just unbelievably disgusting.
You still bringing up the Discord server to this day after you kicked me out back in October was outrageous of you.
And it's actually surprising that Divy, Fara and everyone else is still friends with you; you gaslighted them, I've just realized.

And this suicide thing that I forgot to mention in this callout...

You didn't even bother helping me and instead just pretending to feel my pain and just not suggest anything for me.
Even when we were communicating on Deviantart, you just couldn't care less.

Well guess what, Gemma? I'm no longer feeling suicidal anymore and I'm having a lot of audacity to speak up right now. And if I'm like a cancer to you right now, sucks to be you.

Oh? And you're now sad that I'm pulling this bullshit on you? You've hurt me enough, so I get to do this to you now.

And since you're still running that server you made which boils my blood, I can tell Fara showed you guys this callout and wanting to take action for it..

So go ahead, Gemma.

Go give me more bullshit.

If I eventually end up acting suicidal again, would you fall for it? Obviously you wouldn't. But who's fault would that be besides myself?

And if I ended up getting disfigured or raped in real life, go ahead and be happy. I know that this is something you would clearly laugh at despite that you're my #1 hater.

And as I found out you're horny, go use that thought and use it for the rest of your life for pleasure.

...Now I'm done. I'm sick of your shit. And my bad for being this far on you, but it's been lingering since last year, and I wanted to get away with that. And it's something you can't control from me.

Sincerely, I hate you too.

And that's that. This is all the expressions I have to these people. How they affected me. I feel towards them. Everything.

And to you whiteknights... I have one more thing to say.

I hope I never see you guys again. Hopefully one day you'll all cut into one direction and never meet up together again. You've all hurt me enough and I've had it.

Now for conclusion, just leave me the fuck alone, you're all the reason why you think I'm fucked up in the first place.
