

MARY THOMPSON, CPA

SENIOR ACCOUNTANT

Seasoned client-facing senior CPA with 6+ years of experience at Fortune 500 companies. Seeking an opportunity to use proven auditing skills to minimize client risk. Recouped $1 million in expenses for one client by integrating legacy systems with cutting-edge accounting solutions. Seeking a position with a dynamic firm. Highly skilled in financial statements, regulatory filings, asset management, and IT skills.

EXPERIENCE

August 2019 to present

Senior Accountant, Earnst & Walker, New York

- Instituted accounting systems to improve reporting
- Recouped $1 million in expenses by integrating cutting-edge accounting solutions.
- Directed audit services for clients
- Oversaw general ledger and maintained accurate cash, prepaid, fixed assets, accounts payable, accrued accounts
- Managed tax accounting for clients
- Leader of two accounting teams

May 2014 to August 2019

Accountant, Janes & Thomas, Boston, MA

- Supervised and analyzed balance sheet accounts and journal entries in accordance with US GAAP
- Performed monthly bank reconciliations
- Analyzed general ledger accounts for assets worth over $18 million.
- Onboarded and mentored junior accountants

SKILLS

Tax accounting
Expense reporting
Financial reporting
Financial analysis
Auditing
Accounts payable
Accounts receivable
GAAP accounting
QuickBooks
Excel
Statistical packages
Leadership

EDUCATION

Colombia School of Business
MBA
Accounting
2012
New York, NY
Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

Columbia University
Bachelor of Arts, Accounting
New York, NY

CONFERENCES

2017 AICPA conference: Presented and led session on international accounting standards

PUBLICATIONS

2017 Article on new taxes published in AICPA Insights.
2016 Article on auditing published in Forbes.

