happy birthday, mahal ko!

appreciation letter for my dearest Ykei.

Hi, baby. Today marks 21 years since an angel was born into this world—and to my luck, that angel was given to me. Even though it's you who is celebrating his birthday, I feel like I'm the one receiving the greatest gift by having you in my life. Your presence means everything to me, and I can't imagine a life without you in it anymore.

To me, you are a breath of fresh air in times of struggle. You're the shoulder I can lean on and the one who holds me when I need to cry. You are also my constant source of happiness, like a dose of pure serotonin. Most importantly, you are the person I can love freely and completely, without a hint of doubt.

On your special day, I want you to know how deeply I appreciate you—everything you do, everything you say, and every moment we share together. Being with you makes everything feel lighter and brighter. I always thank the heavens for blessing me with such a loving, caring, and understanding lover like you. Your existence is not only an inspiration and comfort to me but to everyone fortunate enough to know you. You are a blessing to all of us, my Ykei.

In return, I promise to be that someone for you as well. I'll stand by your side through every twist and turn. Even in your hardest times, you'll always have your Maeve to pat your back and hold you tight. As you begin another year of your life, I feel incredibly grateful to be able to start it with you. From this day forward, I'll do everything I can to witness more of your birthdays and celebrate each one with you.

Your love, Maeve
