Text for question no. 3, 4 and 5

I have a pet. It is a dog and I call it Snowy. Snowy is a Chinese breed. It is small, fluffy and cute. It has thick white fur. When I cuddle it, the fur feels soft. Snowy does not like bones. Everyday it eats soft food like steamed rice, fish or bread. Every morning I give her milk and bread. When I am at school, Snowy plays with my cat. They get along well and never fight; maybe because Snowy does not bark a lot. It treats the other animals in our house gently, and it never bites shoes. We always spend time together at home. We do many activities: playing balls, hide and seek, or racing in the backyard. In the afternoon, I usually take him for a walk. People love to see Snowy. Snowy is really a sweet and friendly pet.

I have got a funny experience last Sunday. It happened when I went to the mall with my younger brother.

That day, my brother and I went to the mall near our house. I wanted to buy a T-shirt. We left home after lunch. It was very crowded at mall because it was Sunday. Many teenagers hanged out there. We entered one of the fashion stores. I went to the T-shirt counter and selected the one that I was interested in. Suddenly, my brother saw one of his friends and he said he wanted to talk to him. I let my brother go and asked him not to go too far.

After paying for the shirt, I looked for my brother. I got a little bit angry because I couldn't find him easily. I went out of the store and looked for him everywhere. Finally, I saw the back of a boy with a T shirt like the one my brother wore. I came to that boy and pulled the shirt from behind. But that boy cried out. And when he turned around, I was so embarrassed as he was not my brother.

Text for question no. 34 and 35

~~Chipmunks are small, ground-dwelling members of the squirrel (Sciuridae) family known for their burrowing habits and love of nuts. All species of chipmunks are native to North America, except one - the Siberian chipmunk.~~

Chipmunks can dig extensive burrow systems directly underneath or next to natural or manmade cover. They dig two types of burrows: shallow burrows in which they seek refuge while foraging during the day, and deeper, more complex burrows where they nest, store food and spend most of the winter months.

Their average size is 5.08 until 15.24 centimeters in length. Their tail is around 7.62 centimeters long. Their body have shades of brown/yellow/grey fur with white and black stripes down the back.

Chipmunks are omnivores, dining on various types of foods that are found mostly on the ground. Their diets are more diverse during the warmer months, during which time they hoard nuts and seeds in their burrows to eat in the winter.

(Adapted from <https://www.havahart.com/chipmunk-facts>)

34. The purpose of the writer in writing the text is to inform the readers about

- A. the habitat of chipmunks
- B. the body appereance of chipmunks
- C. the characteristics of chipmunks
- D. what chipmunks eat

35. Based on the text, we know that chipmunks... .

- A. store food for winter
- B. are the same as squirrels
- C. live above the ground
- D. have short tail

Text for question no. 36, 37 and 38

There was once a king who had eleven sons and one daughter. Her name was Elisa. Sadly, their mother died. The king chose a new wife, but she was wicked.

The new queen sent the brother and Elisa away, but before they went, she tried to change the boys into ugly birds. Instead, they turned into beautiful wild swans.

One-night Elisa dreamed that she flew to fairy's castle. "How can I help my brothers?" she asked the fairy.

The fairy told her to gather stinging Net that grew in a dark, scary graveyard. With these she must make eleven shirts.

As Elisa left the dream castle, the fairy said, "You must not speak from the moment you begin this task until it is finished. If you do, your brothers will all die."

When Elisa woke up, she went to nearby grave yard and picked all the Netties she could find.

They stung her hands till other were red. As she worked, she never spoke to her brother.

In a few days, the shirts were done. She put them on the eleven swans, and there stood the eleven princes. The spell was broken, soon they sent the evil queen far away.

36. What is the main idea of paragraph 2?

37. What did Elisa do for her brothers?

38. What can we learn from Elisa?

Sunflowers

Sunflowers are useful plants with large flower heads, or blooms. They are named for the way they turn their blooms from east to west to follow the Sun. Sunflowers were first grown in North and South America. Today they are also grown in other parts of the world, including Europe and Asia.

Sunflowers are giants among flowers. The rough, hairy stem grows from 3 to 15 feet (1 to 4.5 meters) tall. The leaves are wide, rough, and 3 to 12 inches (8 to 30 centimeters) long.

Adapted from kids.britannica.com

39. What is the general identification of the text?
40. Write two detail description about sunflowers!
