

Family and Consumer Sciences

Sue Becker, Riverview

Including: Family and Consumer Sciences Standards, Personal Financial Literacy Standards, ELA Standards and the Wisconsin Common Career Technical Standards

7th Grade Exploratory course

Golden Standards

Standard:

IR1: Students will demonstrate respectful and caring relationships in the family, workplace and community. Skill Developing

EC1.h.10.m: Students will be able to describe behaviors and ways to prevent Shaken Baby Syndrome. Skill Attained

LA.6-8.RST.3: Students will be able to follow precisely a multi step procedure when carrying out experiments, taking measurements, or performing technical tasks. Skill Developing

FPS1.c.7.m: Students will be able to use cooking tools and equipment needed to prepare a class recipe. Skill Developing

Assessment: Food labs, flour baby project

Maroon Standard

Standard:

PFLA: Students in Wisconsin will understand the relationship between education, income, career, and desired lifestyle and will develop the planning skills needed to achieve desired financial goals. Skill Developing

TFA1.d: Students will be able to demonstrate skills needed to produce, alter or repair fashion, apparel and textile products. Skill Developing

Assessment: How people are paid unit

“Bearly” There Standard

Standard:

4C1: Students will think and work creatively to develop innovative solutions to problems and opportunities. Skill Developing

PFLF: Students in Wisconsin will understand the personal and social impact of their own financial decisions within the family, local community, and the global community, as well. Skill Developing

Assessment: Choose your own home, menu planning

