

Thank you

Dear Dad,

I thank you very much for your service and sacrifice to defend our nation. You have allowed this country to continue to enjoy the freedoms and privileges that are so very often taken for granted.

Love, Bristol

Hello veterans,

Thank you for all the hard work you do for us. I hope that you're safe wherever you are. You make so many sacrifices for our country every day. Happy veterans day, I hope you all are okay.

Have a good morning or night, just keep smiling. Remember smiling is contagious and thank you all, for everything :)

Dear Veterans,

Hello Veterans! I don't want to waste your time, but I want to thank you for your hard work and dedication. Thank you for being here to continue supporting and serving us. I hope you know that you're loved and appreciated in every way. Don't give up and keep fighting for all of us.

You all have made big sacrifices for the world. I hope you all have a beautiful Veterans Day! You do and always will have my respect and will be in my thoughts. Please don't stop fighting for whatever you're looking for. You are all doing a beautiful job.

Don't forget that you're loved and appreciated. You will always be in my heart and my respect and gratitude for you. Please, keep moving forward even though our world is a mess. Have a great day and thank you for reading my letter, sorry if I wasted your time but this is very important.

Lots of love,
CJ

Dear Veterans,

I am grateful you saved this country. Everyone is so grateful you saved this country. Be happy because there would be no music and no sports. Thank you for your service.

From, Rayden Donald Edwards

Dear Veteran,

Thank you for your service, your love, and your care for people. I hope you never give up and never forget about the ones you love. I hope you will have a great time where you are, and I will always remember you. Never forget that you are a veteran and you will always be respected. Again, thank you for your service. Just know you will always be loved and cared for. Thank you for what you have done in our country and our world. You will always be appreciated and loved. I hope that you will have a happy life ahead of you. You are a hero to all men and women. If you didn't serve in this country I would have not been here writing this letter to you all, and I just wanted to let you know that you will be much appreciated and loved by everyone.

Sincerely,

Shaelynn

Dear Jesse Gregory,

I am a student at Cove Elementary school, I thank you so much for your service in the Marines, you have done so much for this country. I can't thank you enough for what you have done. I know you didn't get to spend lots of time with your family while in service, and I am happy to be celebrating Veterans Day, you, and other Veterans today, Veterans all over the world thank you for your service!

Best wishes,
Hayden Gregory

Dear Veterans,

Thank you very very much for your service. You went out and served for our freedom, and that is very deeply appreciated. You went out of your way and made a choice to protect our freedom, and you kept us safe. You are a very honored person to me, and I can't thank you enough for serving our country. I thank you so much for taking a very large risk, just to defend our country. I couldn't realize how much you sacrificed. I will honor you very much this Veterans Day. I highly appreciate you.

Sincerely,

Cael

Dear Veterans,

I'm not writing this letter because I have to, I'm writing it because I want to, and because you completely deserve to hear how much I am grateful for you. What you do is the nicest, most outgoing thing to do for the community, everyday you are risking your life just for us. You have absolutely no idea how grateful the whole community is. Our lives are 1,000 times better than what they would be like if you didn't do what you do. Whether you work in the Army, Airforce, or just serve, what you are doing is affecting the community in amazing ways I cannot describe. Nobody made you choose to be a Veteran, YOU made that choice. That is what means so much, you are choosing to risk your life for other people every single day, leaving your family, working extremely hard, risking getting hurt. All that you are doing is so kind. Keep on doing what you're doing, it means so, so, so much. I hope this letter helps you appreciate how much

I care, and how much I am grateful for all of your time.
Thank you for your service.

With lots of love,

Sabrina.

Dear Veterans,

I can not thank you enough for all the work you have done for our country! You have shaped America into the place it is today. I am beyond grateful for all the things you have done, and I cannot express how thankful I am towards you! I hope that you know that everything that you did help our country immensely even though your work is most often taken for granted. Thank you for your service! Your work is greatly appreciated!

Thank you,
Katelyn

I am not sure how to start this so thank you, Veteran, for how much you have given up, and for that, I am very thankful for what you did to keep us safe, and thank you for serving our country. God bless America and rest in peace for those who had to give up their lives to keep America great.

From Liston Mcneil, love from Cove

Dear Veterans,

Thank you for all your hard work. I appreciate all you do for the country. Thank you for sacrificing to make this country a better place. I just want you to know that we appreciate you sacrificing to give us freedom. Thank you for making this a great country.

Sincerely, Gavin.

Dear Veterans,

I want to thank all Veterans for how much you have sacrificed for us. Your work and dedication is much appreciated and loved. I think it takes a lot of courage and support to step up and serve our country in the way all of you have. Even though I do not know where you have been, the struggles you have been through, or maybe even the loneliness you have felt. I want you to know there is someone out there thinking about you, and I am praying too. Happy Veterans day! And don't you ever give up!

Warmly,

Giavanna S.

To my especially great, Great-Grandfather,

I know that you are already gone, and the phrase Rest In Peace is overused, so I am writing a letter to you hoping that you may see it from where you stand now. I wanted to start by saying, I didn't know you that much, after all, I was only 3 years old when you passed, all I knew at the time was that you were kind and every time I would come over, you would give me Tootsie Rolls as a special treat. Now that I can understand what it means to be a Veteran having served in WW2, I am very proud to be able to say that my Great-Grandfather was a prisoner of war to the Japanese, and survived. I miss you terribly and wish that I could have heard and understood all of the incredible stories that you could have told, even though my dad has already told me what had all happened. I wish that I would have known you better, and wish that my brother would have known you too, he would have loved to listen to all of your stories, but wishing won't get me anywhere, so I just want to say, thank you for your service and have a happy Veterans Day,

-You're Great-Granddaughter

Dear Great-Grandpa

Thank you for fighting for America and giving me the life I have now, and thank you for loving our country. I hope you have an amazing life and I love you so much!

-Sincerely,
Miah

Dear Veterans, Thank you for all that you have done for our country, and being one of the bravest people to go and battle, and being heroes for all of us, and I just want to thank you for your service. I'm wondering how it is being in the army and is it stressful, scary or boring? I am here to appreciate what you are doing for our country.

Sincerely, Cortlynn

Dear Bradon,

Thank you for helping the army. You work for hours fixing military vehicles so our army can operate, and you make it possible for our country to be safe. Without you, the army vehicles would start breaking down, and our army would be on foot. People would die because they weren't at a medical base fast enough. But with you, our army runs smoothly and we can live in peace. Thank you for your service.

Your Cousin,
Henry

Dear Veteran,

Thank you very much for your time, bravery, and sacrifice. Thanks to you we are forever free. I for one have a lot of respect for veterans like you. Thank you, we have peace in America. Thanks to you there is justice. There are so many things that you did, and I am forever grateful. If you have served in the Coast Guard, Army, Marines, Air Force, or Navy, you should be proud of yourself because YOU have helped America. If you have served in the Vietnam, Korean, or World War 2 wars, I can't imagine someone with as much bravery as you. You have sacrificed yourself for America's freedom. I shall forever cherish American's freedom. Happy Veterans Day. Thank you so much for fighting for our country. your dedication of your life, Allah weighs forever and be appreciated so much love to you.

Thank You,
Ken
