Get certified - Become a Hāpara Champion!	The Hāpara Champion certification program is the best way to learn how to get the most out of the Hāpara Instructional Suite AND support a positive, student-centered, 21st century classroom. There are three course levels that must be completed in order: Educator, Scholar and Trainer.
Camp Hāpara: New Teacher Edition	A flipped professional learning event designed especially for new teachers.
Hāpara self-paced courses	Our Hāpara Community has free, self-paced courses that you can access and complete at your own pace. Join one of the courses and get to know the basics of Hāpara and how you can use it in your classroom. There are eight courses that will provide a deeper dive into the platform, showing you how to guide students as they learn to navigate the internet and practice working and collaborating in a digital world. The courses are made up of short videos, printable diagrams, reflection questions and more.
The in-app Learning Hub	With the Learning Hub you can learn all about Hāpara's tools and features while you're using them. Just click on the purple question mark anywhere in Hāpara to access click-through guides, video tutorials, relevant support articles and more. You can even open a ticket with our Support team right from the Hub.

Learner Agency
The Evolution of Monitoring	As educators open the web to learners, there is an increased responsibility to ensure student safety. Where do you fall in the evolution of monitoring?
Gradual release and the independent learner	Gradual release of responsibility is the gradual transfer of responsibility for a learning task, objective or goal from the teacher to the learner until the learner can independently perform the task, objective or goal. It is the idea behind the classic “I do, we do, you do” teaching model.
Transparency with learners	We at Hāpara believe in visibility to support teachers' teaching and students' learning. Therefore, when starting with Hāpara Highlights for the first time or with a new group of students, it's essential to be transparent with students about the goal of Highlights and what to expect when using the tool.

Student Dashboard app.mystudentdashboard.com
Teacher guide for Student Dashboard	There is literally nothing teachers have to do in order for students to use Student Dashboard. Just assign work as usual through Google Classroom and let students know how to access their dashboard.
Students: Welcome to Hāpara Student Dashboard	One stop to access all assignments, notifications, emails, returned assignments, graded assignments and more!

Hāpara Privacy Toolkit
Hāpara Privacy Toolkit	Student data privacy is an important issue for teachers, parents, administrators and learners. It is for Hāpara as well.
Ethical Monitoring	Our commitment, our promise, our practice
