

Low Fell Library Association

Position

Our need is to have access to specialist expertise, we are especially looking for the following, but other experiences and skills would also be welcomed and considered.

Any individuals who think they have other skill sets of value are also invited to make contact. We are open to people of all ages and backgrounds. Time commitment would be around one meeting per month, if it is necessary to attend the Trustee's Meeting and additional regular or ad hoc meetings with volunteers, plus thinking, planning and preparation time that can be done anywhere.

About the charity

Low Fell Library Association is a registered charity of over 40 volunteers operating a library to provide information, books and advice to the local community. This is done by providing normal library services, IT support, talks and social events to enhance the literary and cultural knowledge base of the area in a comfortable and safe environment. The Library serves a wide range of individuals across all age groups with a strong equalities policy.
