

Thanks for checking out our “additional resources” document! This is meant to be paired with Nechama Sammet Moring’s article “Mass Incarceration’s Dystopia Gets Even Worse: Harvesting Organs and Co-Opting Radical Language.” Below you will find* links to various articles, essays, books for purchase, podcasts, and videos that further explore the issues of disability, race, colonialism, experimentation, the U.S. carceral system, and the many intersections of those and other issues. Feel free to explore these resources at your convenience in any order you see fit—and don’t hesitate to share widely!
