A. INTRODUCTION (12 pt)

It contains backgrounds of the problem, depiction, and further scrutiny of the problem or the gap between what is idealized and reality, supported by relevant theories, recent research, and the study's objective. The problem should offer a new research value or benefit as an innovative endeavor, written 20% of the whole body, including the title and abstract. Use Times New Roman 12. ELTIN use Mendeley with APA style 7 ed. to write down the citation.

B. METHOD (12 pt)

D. CONCLUSION (12 pt)

Intended not only to repeat findings. The conclusion contains substantialization of meaning. It can present a statement of what is expected as proposed in the “Introduction” and what has happened as reported in the “Findings and Discussion” so that compatibility exists. An addition can be made concerning the prospects of enriching the research findings and developing the potential for future research.

E. REFERENCES (12 pt)

The reference entry is arranged in alphabetical order. All that is referred to in the text must be listed in the reference list, and all written in the reference list must be referred to in the text. Using current articles from Web of Science/Scopus-indexed journals as reference sources is advisable, rather than books or proceedings. The writer is obliged to list all the references validly according to the sources and URL (https of the DOI (digital object identifier) when available), particularly for entries from journals. In the case of cities of publication, differences should be made between writing cities in the USA and cities outside the USA, for example.

Tables

Tables should be typewritten separately from the main text and preferably in an appropriate font size to fit each table on a separate page. Each table must be numbered with Arabic numerals (e.g., Table 1, Table 2) and include a title. Place footnotes to tables below the table body and indicate them with superscript lowercase letters (a, b, c, etc.), not symbols. Do not use vertical rulings in the tables. Each column in a table must have a heading, and abbreviations, when necessary, should be defined in the footnotes.

Figures

Figures should be provided separately from the main text. Use Arabic numerals to number all figures (e.g., Figure 1, Figure 2) according to their sequence in the text. The figure number must appear well outside the boundaries of the image itself. Multipart figures should be indicated with uppercase and bold font letters (A, B, C, etc.) without parenthesis, both on the figure itself and in the figure legends.
