

Mouthpiece and theory testing have been completed! The next step for our band students will be the rental/purchase of their instruments. Listed below is our recommendation for your child's instrument selection based on mouthpiece tests and physical structure. Below are recommended instruments that are the highest quality and best value. These brands of instruments will play with proper intonation, tone, and are constructed very well for daily progress. If a student has the suggested instrument at home, this would be acceptable to use as long as the instrument is a brand listed below and is in good playing condition. Please have your student's instrument and supplies shipped to ILIS no later than Monday, August 31.
